

MY FUTURE JOB IS ILLUSTRATOR

kulakovskaya anastasiya

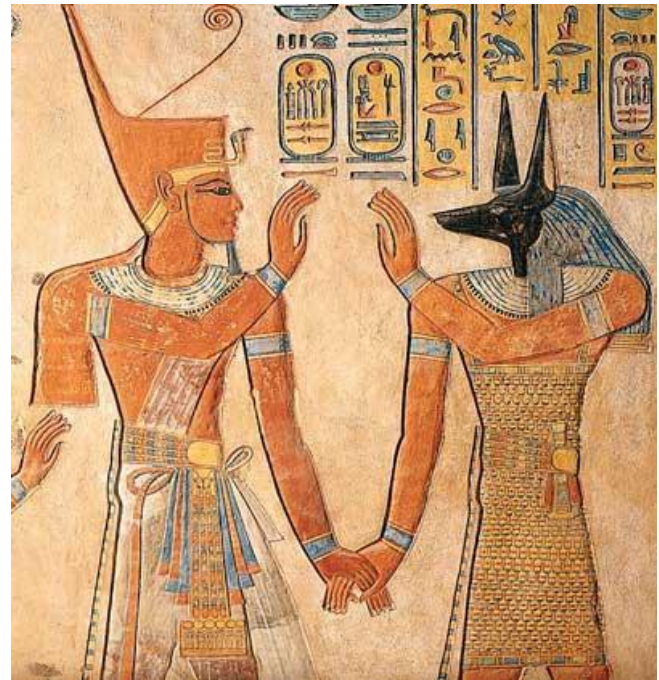

1b

history

- The history of illustrations goes back to the time of the existence of primitive people. Rock paintings are the first illustrations created by human hands.

- Even in ancient Greece and ancient Egypt, wall paintings were of great importance and value.

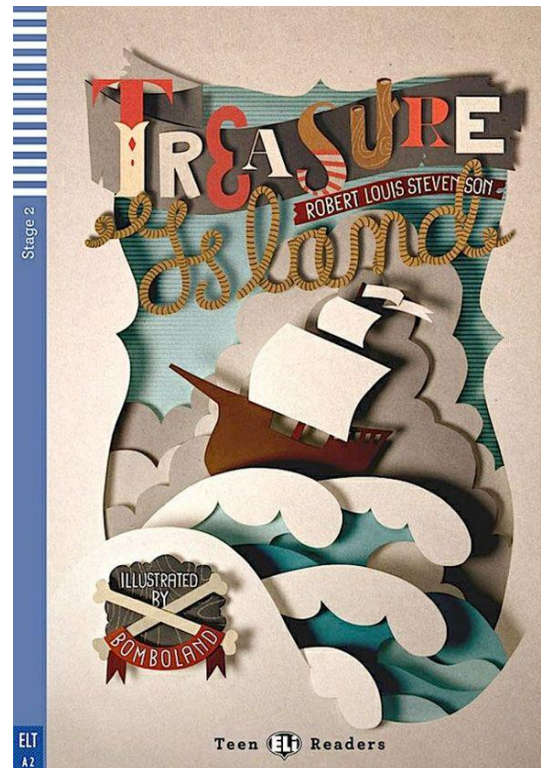

technical

- the job of an illustrator is to create sketches and finished works for customers. Illustrators must be proficient in the production of various technical drawings: Graphic illustration, Botanical illustration. technical illustration. These are all kinds of drawings that engineers use.

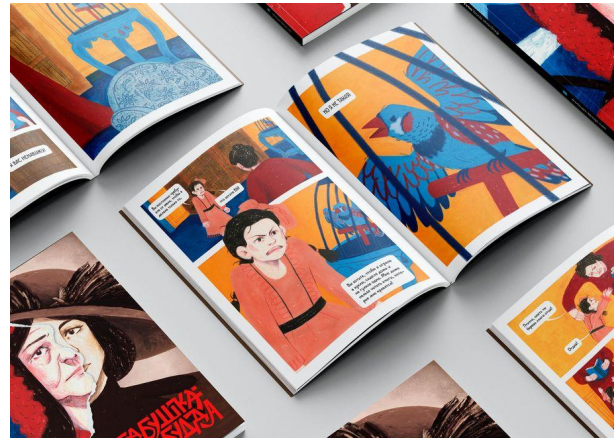

- illustration of special techniques. These include origami, embroidery, modeling, appliqué, ikebana, etc. The illustrator must be original and have a rich imagination.

Kinds of professions

- Fashion illustration...
- Retro illustration...
- Decorative illustration...

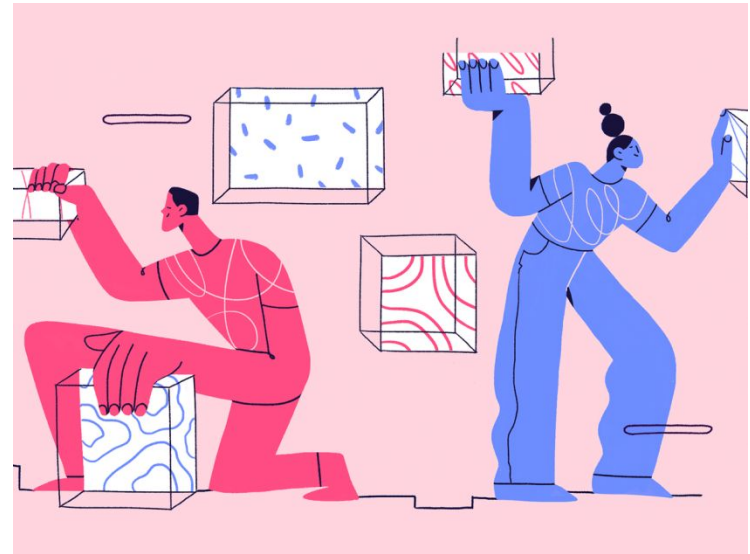

- An illustration of children's literature...
- Comic book illustration...
- Satirical illustration...
- Conceptual illustration

Where used

- This art is in demand in the following areas: professional literature and press; posters, posters -- printing; animation - storyboard; Internet banners consisting of illustrations; production.

Where do you get profession

□ You can get this profession in such universities:.

MGUP (Moscow State University Printing).

WASHGD (Higher
Academic School of Graphic Design)

Institute of Arts of the R GY
A.N. Kosygin

British Higher School
Design.

- . Illustrations bring life and color to books and advertisements. They encourage our brains to visualize what we read by creating images of characters. The illustrator is one of the constantly sought-after modern professions.

Thank you for your attention

