

VLSU

Vladimir State University named after Alexander Grigorievich and Nikolai Grigorievich Stoletovs

– it is a higher educational institution in Vladimir, the largest university in the Vladimir region and in the Central Federal District.

History of VLSU

1958 – The Vladimir branch of the Moscow Evening Machine-Building Institute (VFMMI) was opened.

1964 – Vladimir Polytechnic Institute.

1993 – Vladimir State Technical University (VISTU).

1996 – Vladimir State University (VLSU).

2008 – Alexander Grigorievich and Nikolai Grigorievich Stoletov Vladimir State University.

The resolution on renaming the university was signed by Nikolai Vinogradov, head of the Vladimir region. According to the document, the name of the Stoletovs was given to the university in order to perpetuate the memory of outstanding countrymen who made a great contribution to the development of domestic research in the field of physics and the liberation of Bulgaria from the Ottoman yoke.

General information:

More than 700 international students have international projects.
Assistance in the employment of graduates.
Student creative studios.
Volunteer corps.
University dispensary.
Educational and scientific medical center.
Sports and recreation camp.
TRP studio.
37 basic departments.
11 dormitories.
70 computer classes.
The library fund is more than millions.

Institutes:

Applied mathematics, physics and computer science.

Juridical.

Mechanical engineering and motor transport.

Biology and ecology.

Information technology and radio electronics.

Architecture, construction and energy.

Pedagogical . Humanitarian.

Economics and Management.

Tourism and entrepreneurship.

Arts and art education.

Physical culture and sports.

Murom branch.

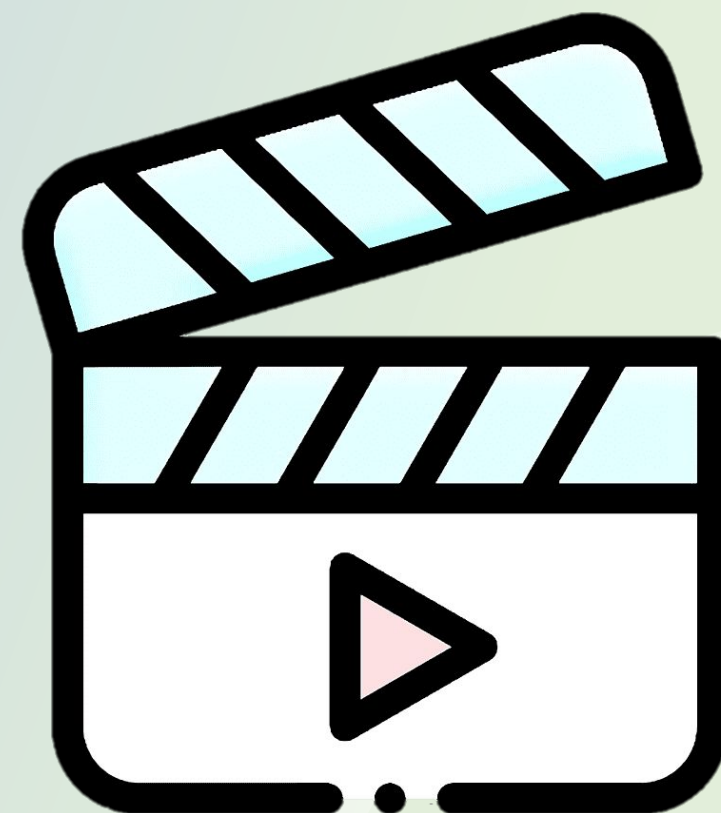

Center for International Education.

Distance Learning Center (CDO).

Faculty of Pre-University Training (since 2006).

Advanced training and retraining of VLGU personnel (IPKiPK).

Watchan interesting video about VLSU!)

Thank you for your attention!

