(A) Hi, Carol!

Thanks for your email about all my friends in New Zealand!

Everything's fine here

(B) I arrived [ə'raivd] in Rio de Janeiro a month ago to start my course and then I moved in with my host family. They live in a big apartment near the beach in Ipanema

(C) The family is very nice.
Mr. and Mrs. Silva are middle-aged [eidʒd] and very friendly. They've got 3 children. Tina's my age, she's got dark hair and she's pretty

She's tall like me. Joao is the middle one. He's 15. he's quite short and he's very tanned from playing football in the sun! Carlos is the young one

He's lovely and he laughs [la:fs] all the time, but he isn't very slim.

(D) Every morning I go to college. The classes are really interesting, especially the literature ones

I usually go to the beach in the afternoon. The beach here is beautiful and the sea is warm.

There's a really handsome [hænsəm] man on the beach.

He watches me every day

He looks nice, but as you know, I am quite shy – so I don't look at him!

(E) Write to me soon and tell me all your news.

Love (Marianne)

M - Marianne

C: So, Marianne, what's your news?

M: Something exciting happened yesterday

C: What?

M: Do you remember that man on the beach – the one I told you about in my email?

C: Er, yes

M: He spoke to me. He's really friendly. He's Brazilian. He works in one of the big hotels on the beach, so he speaks good English

C: What does he look like?

M: Well, he's very handsome and tanned, of course. About 22 or 23, I think. He's slim and he's got dark hair

C: Long or short?

M: Short. And he's got a little beard

C: What's his name?

M: Louis

C: And has he got a wife or a girlfriend?

M: No, he's single at the moment

C: So, do you think he likes you?

Are you listening?
