The bear necessities

A woman from Vancouver, Canada, came home from work one day to find herself in the middle of a real-life nursery rhyme! Paula Green is now called "Goldilocks" by her friends after finding a hungry bear in her kitchen.

The two-year-old brown bear was eating Paula's porridge, so she quickly went into the next room and called for help.

Eventually, the baby bear finished his meal and ran off into the forest. Luckily, there was no sign of a daddy or mummy bear!

Scorpion in bunch of grapes

A deadly scorpion found on a kitchen table caused panic for a family in Wales. Michelle Smith, 42, thinks the scorpion came into her house inside a bag of grapes she bought at the supermarket. While the rest of the family were hiding, Mrs Smith's husband bravely caught the beast.

News Text Alert Sport

A player for a Lincolnshire football team broke a record when he scored 16 goals in a match yesterday. 'I was just playing my best for the team', he said.

Which text is about

- a brave pet?
- an amazing success?
- an unwanted visitor?
- a beast and a brave man?

Real life Lassie saves boy's life

A dog was called a hero after he came to the rescue of his eight-year-old owner - just like in the film Lassie.

James Thomas broke his leg when he fell into the river. Realising he was badly hurt he called his dog 'Buddy' who amazingly pulled him to safety. James was recovering in hospital yesterday but can't wait to get home and say 'thank you' to Buddy!

Reporter: Good evening, Mr Shiao. I'm from the Hong Kong Herald. Can you tell me what happened to you in your taxi today?

Mr Shiao: Well... it was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and I was driving home...

Reporter: Go on...

Mr Shiao: ... when suddenly something flew down from the sky and hit my car. I was surprised!

Reporter: Wow! What was it?

Mr Shiao: A huge turtle!

Reporter: That's unbelievable!

Mr Shiao: I know! I stopped the car and got out. The turtle was lying on the ground and two people were running towards it! They looked very worried!

Reporter: Who were the people?

Mr Shiao: The turtle's owners. It seems that the turtle was crawling on the balcony of their tenth floor apartment when it fell off onto my car.

Reporter: Oh dear! That's terrible! So how was the turtle ... and your car?

Mr Shiao: Well, the turtle was fine but my car was badly damaged.

Reporter: How do you feel now, Mr Shiao?

Mr Shiao: Well, I'm still a bit shocked!

Reporter: I'm not surprised! What a story! Mr Shiao! Thank you for sharing it with us!
