

Hello, my dear students!
Nice to see you again!
How are you?

Say it as quickly as you can.

['tɔ:təs]

[tɔ:kt]

Tiny Tommy Tortoise talked

[tɜ:tɪ]

to Tessie Turtle on the telephone ten times today.

tortoise

turtle

Do you

Do you know the story of the Hare and the Tortoise?

Module 6

Module 6

Units 1-4

TELL THE TALE!

In this module you will ...

• learn, read and talk about ...

- the story of the Hare and the Tortoise
- Lulu's funny dreams

• practise ...

- telling stories
- talking about things that happened in the past

The Story behind the rhyme!

Th

Who is faster?

Is he slow or fast?

The hare is faster than the tortoise.

slow

fast

Who is the winner of the race?

This is a finish line.

lion

tiger

bear

elephant

camel

How do fairy tales begin in Russian?

Once upon a time, there was ...

Once upon a time, there were ...

ни детей, ни внучат. Вот

In English, please!

All actions in fairy tales happen in the past.
In English we add the ending -ed to verbs.

Past Simple

to laugh - laughed to open - opened to start - started to look - looked to jump - jumped to learn - learned to pass - passed to surprise - surprised

глухому - глухой
звонкому - звонкий

Are you ready to read the tale?

Once upon a time, there was a very fast hare and a very slow tortoise.

The hare always laughed at the tortoise because he was so slow.

All the animals were tired of listening to the hare. Then one day the tortoise surprised them all: 'Let's have a race tomorrow then!'

The next day, when they started the race, the hare jumped forward. Very soon he was far ahead of the tortoise.

It was a very sunny day and the hare was very hot. 'There's a tree. I can rest under it!'

A few hours later, the tortoise passed the sleeping hare ...

Suddenly, the hare opened his eyes and looked around. He saw the tortoise at the finish line!

The tortoise was the winner! The hare learned his lesson that day: 'Keep on going and don't stop until you cross the finish line!'

1

Once upon a time, there was a very fast hare and a very slow tortoise.

2

The hare always laughed at the tortoise because he was so slow.

to laugh

All the animals were tired of listening to the hare. Then one day the tortoise surprised them all: 'Let's have a race tomorrow then!'

to be tired of

to surprise

to have a race

The next day, when they started the race, the hare jumped forward. Very soon he was far ahead of the tortoise.

to be far ahead of

It was a very sunny day and the hare was very hot. 'There's a tree. I can rest under it!'

A few hours later, the tortoise passed the sleeping hare ...

to rest

not to pass

7

вдруг

Suddenly, the hare opened his eyes and looked around. He saw the tortoise at the finish line!

The tortoise was the winner! The hare learned his lesson that day: 'Keep on going and don't stop until you cross the finish line!'

8

winner

to see - saw

to keep on going
&
not to stop

Are you tired? Let's have a break!

жили-были...

быстрый

медленный

смеяться на к-л

устать от ч-л

однажды

удивлять к-л

устроить гонку

на следующий день

начать гонку

уйти вперед

быть намного впереди

отдыхать

несколько часов спустя

проходить мимо

вдруг

осмотреться

пересечь финишную прямую

победитель

усвоить урок

to rest

not to pass

to laugh at

to be tired of

winner

to have a race

to surprise

to keep on going & not to stop

to be far ahead of

Watch the video and enjoy it.

Match. Make the sentences.

The hare always laughed at the tortoise

When they started the race,

It was a very hot day

and the hare was very hot.

because he was so slow.

the hare jumped forward.

Read and put H for hare and T for tortoise.

1. He always laughed at him.

2. He surprised them all.

3. He jumped forward.

4. He passed him.

5. Suddenly, he opened his eyes.

6. He was the winner.

What lesson do you learn from the story?

‘Keep on going and don’t stop
until you cross the finish line!’

Do you like the story about the hare and the tortoise?
Can you talk about things that happened in the past?
That's all for now. Bye-bye!