the number of sports today reaches several thousand, and new ones appear every year. I want to introduce you to some of them.

Basketball

basketball is played on a special court consisting of two basketball rings. The goal of the game is to throw the ball into the opponent's ring

football

football is the most popular sport in the world. The goal of the game is to score the ball into someone else's goal with just your feet

volleyball

volleyball is played on a small court. the team consists of six people. The goal of the game is to throw the ball through the net onto the opponent's field

tennis

tennis is played on a special court with a ball and a racket. the goal of the game is to throw the ball over the opponent's net and do it so that he could not hit it.

hockey

hockey is played on a skating rink with clubs and a puck. the goal of the game is to score the puck into the opponent's goal

I decided to find out how many people in the world are engaged in the most popular sport. by taking statistics and creating diagramm

now you have learned a little about different sports. THANK YOU ALL FOR LISTENING!!!
