The image shows two rows of handwriting practice cards. Each card has a blue header tab and is divided into four horizontal lines (top, dashed midline, baseline, and descender). The first row contains three cards with the letters 't', 'h', and 'e' respectively. The second row contains three cards with the letters 'e', 'n', and 'd' respectively. The cards are arranged side-by-side, forming the words 'the' and 'end'.
