

My last shopping

for food

Frankly speaking, I am really shopaholic. I am crazy about purchases, discounts, clearances and shop-windows. I am fond of shopping for everything. And shopping for food isn't an exception.

First of all, I made a shopping list

Dairy products:milk,cottage cheese,yoghurt

Veg:carrot,cucumber,peppers

Confectionary:sweets,chocolate.

I went to a supermarket “Almi”

and took a basket.

Following the list, I dropped into dairy and took products, that I need in.

The next was greengrocer's

There I chose the best fresh vegetables. To the choose of vegetables I took very carefully.
Actually, I like my choose.

The last was my favorite department

In the end I went to confectionery and took a lot of sweets.

And then I went to check-out
and bought all this purchases.

Thank you for attention!
