

Top 10 Universities

There are the best Universities in the world

10. It is Columbia University

Columbia University was founded in 1754 as King's College by King George II of England. It is the oldest institution of higher learning in New York and the fifth oldest in the United States. For more than 250 years, Columbia has been a leader in higher education in the nation and around the world. At the core of our wide range of academic inquiry (изучение, запрос) is the commitment (долг, приверженность) to attract and engage (заниматься) the best minds in pursuit (стремление) of greater human understanding, pioneering new discoveries and service to society. The University's governance is directed by the 24-member Board of Trustees (попечительский совет) and by the University Senate. There are a lot of departments such as Anatomy and Cell Biology Department, Anesthesiology Department, Anthropology Department, Biochemistry and Molecular Biophysics Department, Biological Science Department, Computer Science Department, Earth and Environment Science Department, Ecology, Evolution and Environmental Biology and so on. Average cost of learning is 37 400 per year 9.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

The mission of MIT is to advance knowledge and educate students in science, technology, and other areas of scholarship that will best serve the nation and the world in the 21st century. MIT is located on 168 acres that extend more than a mile along the river. Seventy-seven present and former members of the MIT community have won the Nobel Prize, including eight current faculty members. MIT includes 35 departments and 6 schools. Average cost of study is 36000$ per year. There is a saying among students “there is a paradise for crazy people and hell for the others ”

8.

University of Chicago

University of Chicago

Located in the community of Hyde Park on Chicago's South Side, just 15 minutes from the city center. Our faculties and students are pioneers, discoverers, teachers, scholars, and change agents. We ask tough questions, engage the world around us, and pursue (заниматься, добывать) knowledge with rigor (усердие) because we believe in the transformative power of ideas.

This University was founded by Rockefeller in 1980. Present President of the USA Barack Obama has taught here. At the University of Chicago, we take seriously our part in the enormous task of generating new knowledge for the benefit of present and future generations. Our faculty crosses traditional boundaries to transform the way we understand business, economics, history, law, literature, religion, physics, chemistry, and biology and medicine, among other fields. In this spirit of discovery, we train future generations of scholars, scientists, educators, and world leaders. This University is the first University in the USA, where women could study. Average cost of study is 42000 $.

8.

UCL (University College London)

UCL (University College London)

The first worldly (светский) University in the UK. UCL was established in 1826 to open up education in England for the first time to students of any race, class or religion. UCL was later the first English university to welcome female students on equal terms with men.

Our founding principles of academic excellence and conducting research aimed at addressing real-world problems inform our ethos to this day.

6.

Imperial College
London

Imperial College London

- Imperial College London is a university of world class scholarship, education and research in science, engineering and medicine, with particular regard to their application in industry, commerce and healthcare. Established in 1907, it is located in the heart of London. It is consistently rated among the United Kingdom's top three universities

The College has over 3,000 academic and research staff and almost 14,000 students from over 120 different countries. Our reputation for excellence in teaching and research in science, engineering, medicine and business attracts students and staff of the highest international calibre. Imperial has three Faculties, of Engineering, Natural Sciences, Medicine; the Imperial College Business School; and a Humanities Department. Interdisciplinary research is promoted through several Institutes, for example the Grantham Institute for Climate Change and the Energy Futures Lab.

5.

● California
Institute of Technology
(Caltech)

The mission of the California Institute of Technology is to expand human knowledge and benefit society through research integrated with education. We investigate the most challenging, fundamental problems in science and technology in a interdisciplinary atmosphere, while educating outstanding students to become creative members of society.

The California Institute of Technology (commonly referred to as Caltech) is a private research university located in California, United States. Caltech has six academic divisions with strong emphases on science and engineering. Its 124-acre primary campus is located approximately 11 mi (18 km) northeast of downtown Los Angeles.

California Institute of Technology (Caltech)

4.

University of Oxford

University of Oxford

Oxford is the oldest university in the English-speaking world and lays claim to nine centuries of continuous existence. As an internationally renowned (популярный) centre for teaching and research, Oxford attracts students and scholars from across the globe, with almost a quarter of our students from overseas. More than 130 nationalities are represented among a student population of over 18,000. Oxford is a collegiate university, with 39 self-governing colleges related to the University in a type of federal system. There are also seven Permanent Private Halls, founded by different Christian denominations. Thirty colleges and all halls admit students for both undergraduate and graduate degrees. Seven other colleges are for graduates only; one has Fellows only, and one specializes in part-time and continuing education.

University of Oxford

3.

University of Cambridge

University of Cambridge

The University of Cambridge is rich in history - its famous Colleges and University buildings attract visitors from all over the world. But the University's museums and collections also hold many treasures which give an exciting insight into some of the scholarly activities, both past and present, of the University's academics and students. The University of Cambridge is one of the oldest universities in the world and one of the largest in the United Kingdom. Its reputation for outstanding academic achievement is known world-wide and reflects the intellectual achievement of its students.

University of Cambridge

There are 31 Colleges in Cambridge. Three are for women (New Hall, Newnham and Lucy Cavendish) and two admit only graduates (Clare Hall and Darwin). The remainder house and teach all students enrolled in courses of study or research at the University. Each College is an independent institution. Each College is an independent institution with its own property and income. The Colleges appoint their own staff and are responsible for selecting students, in accordance with University regulations. The teaching of students is shared between the Colleges and University departments. The average cost of study is about 40 000$ plus 10 000 for living per year.

2.

● Yale

University

Yale University

Yale University was founded in 1701 as the Collegiate School in the home of Abraham Pierson, its first rector. Yale University comprises three major academic components: Yale College (the undergraduate program), the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and the professional schools. In addition, Yale encompasses a wide array of centers and programs, libraries, museums, and administrative support offices. Approximately 11,250 students attend Yale.

Yale University

1.

Harvard University

Harvard University

Harvard University

Harvard College was established in 1636 by vote of the Great and General Court of Massachusetts Bay Colony, and was named for its first benefactor, John Harvard of Charlestown.

Harvard is America's oldest institution of higher learning, founded 140 years before the Declaration of Independence was signed. The University has grown from nine students with a single master to an enrollment of more than 18,000 degree candidates, including undergraduates and students in 10 principal academic units. An additional 13,000 students are enrolled in one or more courses in the Harvard Extension School. Over 14,000 people work at Harvard, including more than 2,000 faculty. There are also 7,000 faculty appointments in affiliated teaching hospitals.

Our mission, to advance new ideas and promote enduring knowledge, has kept the University young. We strive to create an academic environment in which outstanding students and scholars from around the world are continually challenged and inspired to do their best possible work. It is Harvard's collective efforts that make this university such a vibrant place to live, to learn, to work, and to explore. The average cost of study is about 42000$ per year.