

ENGLISH

READING

- Objectives:
- -to practise reading for detail and vocabulary skills
- -to understand sequence of events
- -to practise using Past Simple

Chapter 4 THE DREAM

- -to wave-махать
- -a tiny spot-крошечное пятно
- -to be scared-быть напуганной
- -a castle-замок
- -handsome-красивый
- -to be filled with love for...-наполняться любовью
- -to seem-казаться
- -misery-страдание
- -to explore-исследовать
- -prison-заточение, тюрьма
- -stuffed animals-чучела животных
- -a chandelier-люстра
- -softly-мягко
- -a roar of anger and pain-рёв гнева и боли
- -terrified-охваченный ужасом

Read the text carefully and fill in the 5-W tables with your answers.

Who?	What did she see?	Whom did she see?	Where did she see a dream?	Why was she Happy?
Beauty

Who?	When?	Where?	What question/ answer?	Why?
The Beast
Beauty

MATCH THE PICTURES WITH THE SENTENCES FROM THE TEXT

WHO SAYS WHAT

- 1. "Beauty, don't be sad. Things are not the way they seem."
- 2. "Did you find things to make you happy today?"
- 3. "Why don't you love me? Am I so ugly?"
- 4. "Don't trust your eyes."
- 5. "You are kind, but I don't love you."

Comprehension questions.

- 1.What did Beauty do when her father left the castle?
- 2.Who did she see in her dream?
- 3.What did the voice say to her?
- 4.Where did she go to look for the Prince?
- 5.What was in the first room she went into?
- 6.What was in the next room?
- 7.What was in Beauty's room when she went back to it?
- 8.What did the Beast ask Beauty?
- 9.What was Beauty's reply?

Find the words related to each other. Then add one more from the text and connect them.

beautiful

chandelier

scared little lamp pretty blanket frightened small

cover

tiny

Imagine, Beauty writes a letter to her father that evening. Copy the letter

- Dear father,

Please, don't worry about me. I had a nice time in the Beast's castle. When you left the castle, I fell asleep.....

.....
.....
.....
.....

I miss you and hope to see you soon.

Love, your Beauty.

The End

