

Aztecs

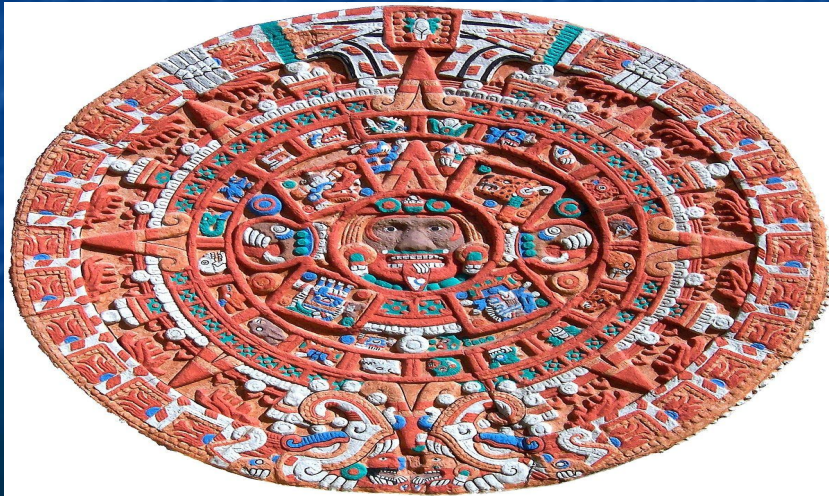

Kozlova Marina

In Central Mexico for a long time lived a lot of tribes, speaking different languages. They were skilled farmers and artisans. The Mexican aborigines created their first states early.

- Archaeologists believe that they were similar to the city-states of the ancient Mesopotamia. The major city centers were Teotihuacan, Cholula, and Shochikolko.

- Their temples and palaces still impress with the perfection of proportions and the grace of decoration. Indians reached the heights of skill in sculpture, the manufacture of vessels and other artistic products.

Religion.

- The Aztecs had many gods. After capturing some city or people, they added his gods to their own. The conquerors acquainted the conquered with their gods.

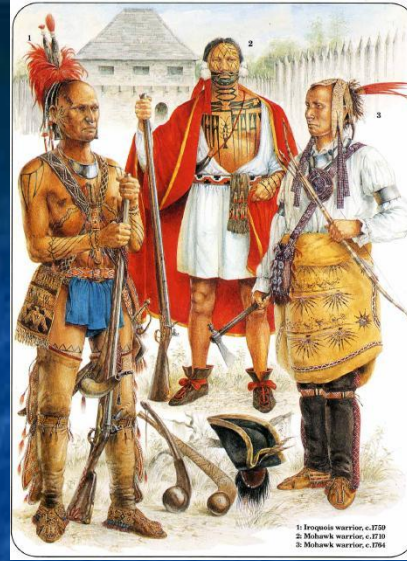

- Therefore, the Aztecs had several deities of the sun, several deities of water, several deities of the earth. Many gods, according to the Aztec legends, lived in the underworld. Also, the Aztecs came with myths.

- Tales of the gods, who were worshiped by their neighbors and predecessors, closely intertwined with the Aztec legends.

THANK YOU FOR ATTENTION

