

News for the youth

- The general idea that the magazine is going to be based around is to unite people. We want a family to gather at the table, read this magazine because lately people spend little time with their family.

- “Happy Family” . The magazine will be for everybody who wants to know information about: parenting , beauty, amazing places around the world, national food, celebrities

- The first section is dedicated to kids and is called “Children’s time”. Young children will develop their skills enjoying time.

- The second section is dedicated to teens and is called “Teenage kick”. Here you can find answers to numerous questions on psychology, healthy lifestyle, drinks, sport, use of social networks, creating relationships, rest for soul.

- The third section is dedicated to adults and is called “Parents` Life”. Here you can find lots of information about secrets of a friendly family, parenting, relations with a difficult child, problems with health, places for rest, family future plans, love and rapport. This section will be made to establish relationships between family members and strengthen their ties.

