

Christmas in Northern Ireland

Streets of Ireland in celebration

Christmas is a religious holiday celebrated in the family circle

During the holidays the streets are usually empty

Preparation for the holiday

Cleaning and decorating the house

How Ireland works at Christmas

All shops, bars, cafes, public transport, restaurants, government offices and taxis take the weekend from 24 to 26 December

The only place you can go on Christmas day in Ireland is the Church

Christmas celebration

24-Christmas
Eve

December
25-Christmas

December 26-Wren's
day

Festive table

The main course is plum pudding

The end

yasno, clown