

Halloween.

Halloween is celebrated on the night of October 31 to November 1. It came to us from Ireland and Scotland and became popular in many countries around the world.

- It is celebrated in the USA, Great Britain, New Zealand, and other English-speaking countries.
 - On this holiday, people dress up in costumes and arrange festivities.

- Especially popular are costumes of vampires, monsters, werewolves, ghosts and mystical heroes.
 - The main symbol of the holiday is a lantern and a pumpkin.

- Also, people dress up their homes, prepare goodies.
 - The tradition of Halloween is trick-or-treating. It is called "Sweet or nasty". Children go from house to house in costumes and hope to get sweets or coins.

- The holiday comes at the time of the apple harvest. Therefore, it is popular to cook apple caramel, apples in syrup, apple toffee on this holiday. Halloween is also associated with various games and divination.
