The Presidents of the USA

George Washington was the first person to be elected the President of the United States. His political life was successful. In 1792 he was reelected for the next 4 years.

Thomas Jefferson was an American outstanding man and the third President of the USA. The Declaration of Independence was written by Thomas Jefferson.

In 2000 George Bush became the candidate of the President from the Republican Party. George Walker Bush is the forty-third and current President of the United States.

THIS IS A DAY WHEN ALL AMERICANS FROM EVERY WALK OF LIFE UNITE IN OUR RESOLVE FOR JUSTICE AND PEACE. AMERICA HAS STOOD UP TO ENEMIES BEFORE, AND WE WILL DO SO AGAIN. YET, WE GO FORWARD TO OTHER FRONTIERS AND ALL THAT THEY HAD DECLARED WAR ON US, AND I MADE UP MY MIND AT THAT MOMENT THAT WE WERE GOING TO WAR.

The legislative branch

1. The Congress.

2. It is a group of people elected to make laws for the country.

3. Congress has two parts: The Senate and The House of Representatives.

The senate

- 1. There are 100 senators.*
- 2. Each state has two senators.*
- 3. A Senator is in office for 6 years. This is called a "term."*
- 4. Senators meet in the U.S. Capitol building*

An aerial photograph of the United States Capitol building in Washington, D.C. The white neoclassical building with its prominent dome is the central focus. The surrounding area includes green lawns, trees, and other government buildings. The Washington Monument is visible in the distance on the left side of the frame. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

The house of representatives

- 1. There are 435 representatives.*
- 2. The more people that live in a state, the more representatives it has.*
- 3. Representatives serve for a term of two years.*
- 4. They can be elected for more than one term.*

The background of the slide is a circular image of the White House, showing its iconic portico with columns and a large tree on the right side. The text is overlaid on this image.

The Executive Branch

- 1. The president, or Chief Executive, is the head of the government.*
- 2. Americans vote every four years for their leader of their democratic society.*
- 3. After elected to serve his/her country, the president lives and works in the White House.*
- 4. The president is in charge of the armed forces.*
- 5. The president works with leaders of other countries.*

The background of the slide is a photograph of the United States Supreme Court Building. The building is a large, white, neoclassical structure with a prominent portico supported by six tall columns. To the left of the building, an American flag flies on a tall pole. To the right, there are large, leafy green trees. The sky is a clear, light blue. The overall scene is bright and well-lit, suggesting a sunny day.

The Judicial branch

- 1. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the U. S., and is the system of courts to settle questions about the laws.*
- 2. The nine justices can serve for as long as they live, or wish to retire.*
- 3. Each justice is chosen by the president.*

Government

- The president carries out the laws of the United States.
- The Congress (Senate and House of Representatives) makes the laws.
- The Supreme Court explains the laws.

Thanks for work!!!

The end!
