

The Teacher's Profession

One of the most important decisions in life is the choice of a profession. This problem is compounded by the fact that it is necessary to solve it very early, still not at a completely conscious age.

The graduates of schools, in addition to their loads of the study of subjects and passing exams, should determine accurately their future profession.

Since childhood I have dreamed of becoming a teacher. Initially, it was an unconscious desire, because my grandmother was an elementary school teacher, and I always envied her.

I consider her a real celebrity, lots of students from her previous classes of graduates came to visit her, their parents always addressed respectfully and lovingly to her, she often returned home with bouquets of flowers. It was so interesting for me to attend her school activities and interact with her students.

I understand that the noble and time-consuming work of a teacher is not highly valued in the country, salaries are small, the environment at work is far from being favourable and the profession requires constant dedication

But I believe that doing things you love, and not just making a career, can bring excellent results.

A good teacher must possess many qualities: to be creative, hard -working, self-restrained, able to solve problems and make the right decisions.

I hope that I will succeed and I will never be disappointed about my choice
