

National Park of Russia

Karina Kislova

Sochi National Park

Sochi National Park is located in the city of Sochi, in the Northwest of the Caucasus, on the slope of the Black Sea.

Date of Foundation

- Sochi National Park founded in the year 1983 on May 5.

Objective grounds Park

- Park founded-in order to preserve the unique natural complexes of the Black Sea coast of the Caucasus, their use in environmental, recreational, educational and scientific purposes, and for the preservation of rare animals.

Sochi sights of the Park it flows about 40 creeks and rivers, Shah comp mzymta. In streams and rivers is not a small amount of canyons and waterfalls. The fauna is extremely diverse. In the Park live representatives of about 70 species of mammals. Among them are brown bears, Lynx, chamois, deer, wild boars, roe deer, wolves, Martens, otters, badgers, hares, and many others.

Sochi fauna reserve

- Here are often found brown bear, roe deer, wild boar, Wolf, Fox, wild cat, Badger, squirrel, weasel, Hare, Lynx and less bars, on the cliffs inhabited by chamois. Of avifauna — chickadee, cuckoo, Kingfisher, thrush, etc. In mixed deciduous forest birds is much greater than in beech and FIR.

Vegetation of Sochi nature reserve

- The vegetation of the Sochi National Park unique. Here grow hundreds of different kinds of trees. Large area occupied by beech forests, oak groves, European chestnut. You can admire endlessly thickets of box-rare relic plants found only in the southern regions. Many plants growing in the Park are listed in the Red Book, they require careful treatment and vigilantly protected by.

Thanks for your attention!