

A scenic view of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, France, viewed from across the Seine River. The tower is the central focus, its intricate iron lattice structure clearly visible against a clear blue sky. In the foreground, several tour boats are docked along the riverbank. The scene is framed by vibrant green maple leaves in the upper corners. The word "FRANCE" is prominently displayed in the center in a bold, red, serif font.

FRANCE

□ France is the largest country in Western Europe. The official name of the state is the French Republic. The capital of the country — Paris, other cities-millions-Marseille, Lyon, Bordeaux, Lille, Toulouse. France is the largest country in Western Europe. The official name of the state is the French Republic. The capital of the country — Paris, other cities-millions-Marseille, Lyon, Bordeaux, Lille, Toulouse.

The country is bordered by Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium to the northeast, Spain and Andorra to the South, and the Principality of Monaco and Italy to the Southeast. The country is bordered by Germany, Luxembourg and Belgium to the northeast, Spain and Andorra to the South, and the Principality of Monaco and Italy to the Southeast.

France is bounded in the West and North by the Atlantic ocean (the Bay of Biscay and the English channel) and in the South by the Mediterranean sea (the Gulf of Lyon and the Ligurian sea).

PARIS

Paris is the capital of France since the 10th century ad .

The population of France is 65 060 692 million people.

4th place in Europe!

President

Emmanuel Jean-Michel Frederic macron is a French statesman and politician.
President of France and Supreme commander of the French Armed forces since may 14, 2017.

The Flag of France Its colors are explained by some as the three words of the national motto: "Freedom, equality, fraternity"

