

My ambitions

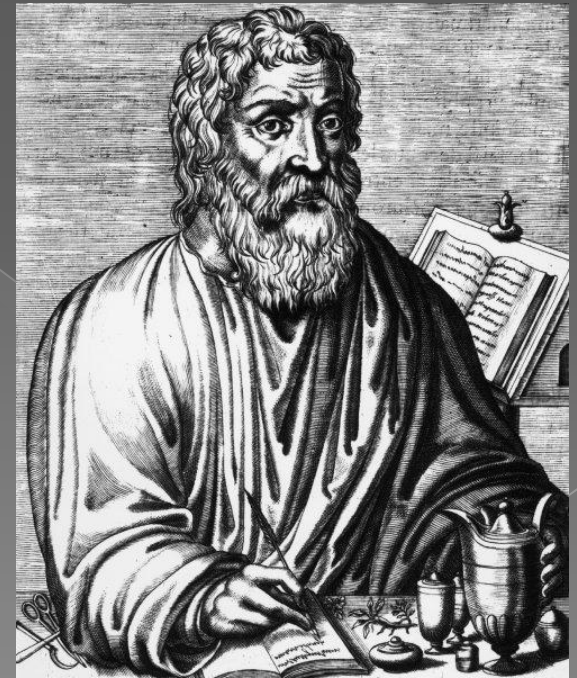

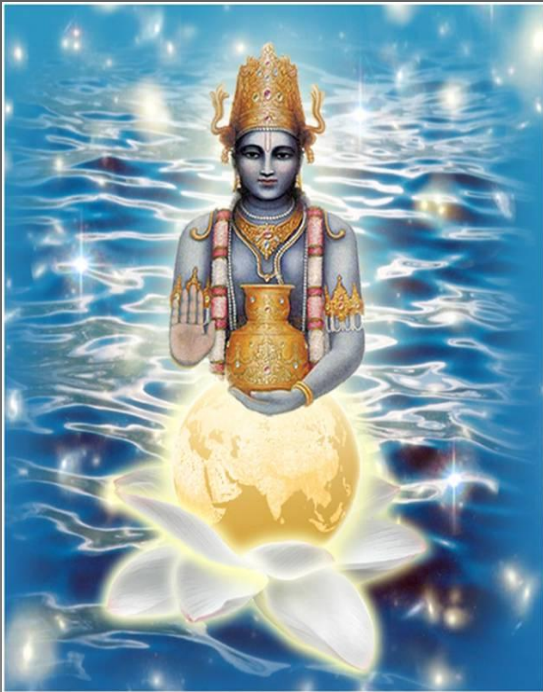

Good day, my name is Abhai. I study at school. I'm 13 years old. Now i want to tell you about my ambitions.

Different people have different ambitions. Some want to be rich. Some wish to become leaders of the country to gain honor. Some desire to be great scientists

I like sport, music, games. But my important ambition is snowboard, and i'm trying to improve it. I have my own ambition.

My only ambition in life is to serve my country, and to spend the rest of my life in the service of the suffering people. I want to do this by becoming a doctor.

I may be too young now, but I know I want to become a doctor. I want to serve the sick and the poor. Since they cannot afford to pay for their treatment, I would like to go to the village and treat the poor free of charge.

I am already working hard, trying to get good marks, which will help me in getting admission into a good medical university.

I will work hard. I shall earn reputation of being a good all-round doctor.

Thank you for your attention
Good luck!
