

MONTREAL

Montreal is one of the largest industrial centres of Canada, is located in a southwest part of a province Quebec. Montreal has a population of 3 millions people.

There are more than 300 parks in Montreal. The most popular park is Mont-Royal, located on a large hill with a stunning view of the city. Huge green lawns, Beaver Lake, a picnic area are surrounded by rich vegetation. Trees protect the park from noise and dust. For those who want to go on a picnic here all the conditions are created.

The Montreal Botanical Garden (founded in 1931) includes more than 30 large outdoor themed gardens and a greenhouse complex, which contains plants from around the world. Total collection of plants has 20 thousand different species.
