Introduction

We want to tell you about the current president of USA about Donald Trump. We will talk about how he rules the United States, about his life, how he leads social networks, his publications, and posts

Donald John Trump (born June 14, 1946) is the 45th and current president of the United States since 20.01.17. Before entering politics, he was a businessman and television personality. Donald Trump is the richest man to take office. He also participates in various talk shows and other television programs. Donald Trump is fond of playing golf. He has 5 children and 8 grandchildren

Political Image

- Political image, conceived as reputation, is re-legitimated according to democratic norms of reason and rationality. Competence, strength of leadership, credibility of promises and so on may all be subjected to informed criticism and the test of experience and thus are unsustainable over time through artifice and illusion.
- It is very important for politicians to build and uphold a positive image. Under the constant scrutiny of their constituents, politicians must maintain a consistent image yet simultaneously appeal to many diverse voters.

Leaders' activity on Social Networks

Donald Trump on Facebook

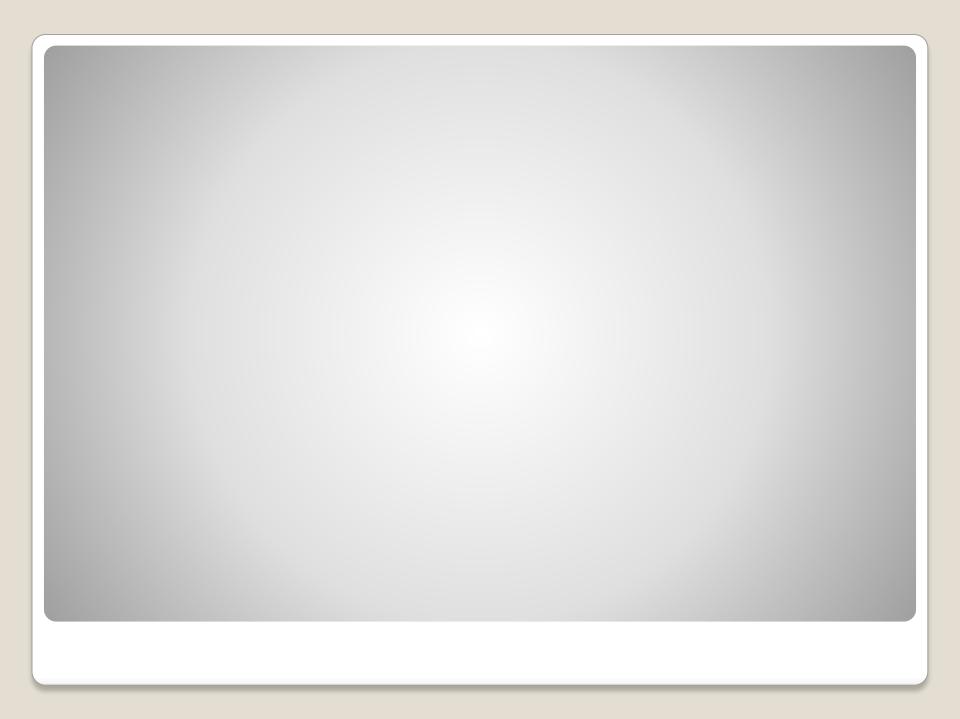

Trump on Facebook is the largest in number of subscribers.

On social networks, the President of the United States constantly shares his life, about his working trips, about the places he visits and about the global news of the country.

In his latest Twitter post, Trump explained that he uses social networks not because he likes it, but because it is "the only way to deal with a very dishonest and unfair" press "

in life and on social networks Trump supports his people, talks about the news of the world and what is happening in his life and in the US both in life and in social networks, he actively supports his breed

Conclusion

 In conclusion, we would like to say that after reviewing the profiles of a number of officials in social networks, you can see that they use social networks mainly for their own advertising or advertising of the work of the state body. Sometimes their attempts look very creative, but sometimes they fail to go beyond the official format.
