.Using the Internet is very popular nowadays. It seems that Internet has created a whole new history. It has drastically changed everything around. That's why, Internet is better than any other type of information. You can find the information you're looking for in 5 seconds. Just google it and here is the answer.

2. Broadly speaking, Internet can greatly help students in their studies. They can find any information they need because all books or prints can be found online, as well as all films and programs. It is very convenient for students, professionals, experts and all other people. More over people can get education on-line.

3 In spite of all the good sides that Internet has, there are some drawbacks. First of all, they are viruses, which can be very dangerous for any computer. That's why it's good to have reliable anti-virus software installed .Other minus is the violent content. As well as on TV, there is a lot of violence and cruelty online. It has many other negative functions: dependence, the waste of time, money, health. If we spend a lot of time on the Internet we can lose a touch with the real world, get in a full dependence on a computer.
