

Police of the Russian Federation

Presentation by the cadet:
Vorontsova A.A.
Group number 121

The police is the federal law-enforcement agency in Russia, operating under the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

History.

The police force in Saint Petersburg was established as the Main Police on June 7, 1718 by decree from Peter the Great.

On January 19, 1722 the Governing Senate
established the Moscow
Police. The Detective Department was founded in 1866 operating under the Police Department of MVD, and by 1907
similar departments had been created in other major cities of the Russian Empire,
including Moscow, Kiev,
Riga, Odessa, Tiflis, Baku and Rostov-on-Don.

Russian police reform is an ongoing effort initiated by former President Dmitry Medvedev to improve the efficiency of Russia's police forces, decrease corruption and improve the public image of law enforcement. On 7 February 2011, amendments were made to laws on the police force, the criminal code and the criminal procedure code.

Central administration

1. Criminal Police Service
2. Logistical Service
3. Independent Divisions

Rank insignia
The Russian Police do not use the rank of Corporal.

In order to attend college police after the 9th or 11th class, you must complete and submit to the selection committee the following documents:

- 1.The application (for minors with parental consent).
- 2.A copy of the certificate of education.
- 3.Copy of birth certificate (passport).
- 4.Medical certificate form.
- 5.A copy of the medical insurance.
- 6.Professional color photographs 3x4.
- 7.The certificate of the results of the exam or the OGE.
- 8.Copies of the documents on the granting of privileges.

Future employees MVDKrome Commission, all future students are:

- 1. Testing the overall psychological state and level of IQ;
- 2. interview in basic school subjects - Russian language (in the form of a short essay), Russia and the history of mathematics (not per specialty);
- 3. entrance examinations in physical education, which include running (100 and 1,000 m) as well as strength training. The score for this discipline is added to a common and has a significant influence in the competitive selection.

Thank you for attention.