

Birthdays celebrations around the world!

Find out how people in different countries celebrate birthdays

United Kingdom

- We live in the United Kingdom. In our country, people often celebrate birthdays with a birthday cake, presents and a party.

Mexico

- Mexico is a country in South America.
- At birthday parties in Mexico there is usually a pinata, filled with sweets, coins and candles. Children are blindfolded and try to hit the pinata to get the goodies out!

Denmark

- Denmark is a country in Europe.
- When it is someone's birthday in Denmark, a flag is flown from a window of the house.
- Presents are put around a child's bed while they are asleep.

Israel

- Israel is a country in Asia
- When it is a child's birthday, they wear a crown made of leaves or flowers. Guests dance and sing around the chair and the parents lift the chair up.

India

- India is a country in Asia
- On a child's birthday, they get up early and wear brand new clothes.
- At school, the birthday child wears bright colours and shares chocolates with the whole class.

