South Kazakhstan State University named after M.O. Auezov (SKSU) (Kazakh M.O. Kuyezov atyndagy Ontustik Kazakhstan Memlekettik University (O (MU)) (formerly Kazakh Chemical Technology Institute , South Kazakhstan Technical University) - state higher educational an institution in the city of Shymkent , which provides training in 76 technical and humanitarian specialties. Founded in 1943

During the height of the Great Patriotic War, on June 19, 1943, the Council of People's Commissars of the USSR decided to establish the Technological Institute of Building Materials in accordance with Resolution No. 679B. On June 29 of the same year, the All-Union Committee for Higher Education under the USSR People's Commissariat and the USSR Commissar for Building Materials issued an order "On the organization of the Technological Institute of Building Materials in Shymkent, Kazakh SSR."

The building of the pedagogical school on Sovetskaya Street (now Kazybek Bi) was transferred to the university. K.A. was appointed the head of the newly opened school. Deliaur, who moved from Kharkov. In fact, it was he who made a great contribution to the opening of the institute, bringing to the highest authorities the need for urgent training of qualified specialists required in the construction industry.
