

The definite article with geographical names

We use THE with:

- names of oceans, rivers, seas and canals:

Oceans – the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Indian

Rivers – the Rio Grande, the Thames, the Nile

Seas – the Baltic Sea, the Red Sea, the Mediterranean

Canals – the Suez Canal, the Panama Canal

But there is usually no THE with:

- lakes:

- ⊘ Lake Victoria,

- ⊘ Lake Eire,

- ⊘ Lake Titicaca

We use THE with:

- mountain ranges:

the Alps,

the Andes,

the Rocky Mountains

- groups of islands:

the Bahamas,

the Canary Islands

But there is no THE with:

- single mountain tops / peaks:

- ⊘ Mount Blank,

- ⊘ Mount Everest,

- ⊘ Mount Etna

- single islands:

- ⊘ Sicily

- ⊘ Bermuda

- ⊘ Tenerife

There is usually no THE with:

- names of continents, countries, states, towns:

⊘ Africa,

⊘ France,

⊘ Florida,

⊘ Vilnius

We use THE with:

- plural names of countries:
the Netherlands,
the Philippines
- names that include Republic, State, Kingdom, Federation):
the Czech Republic
the United Kingdom
the United States

