

My Sport Idol

Performed: Zhegalova Valentina,
61101

Aliya Mustafina — Russian artistic gymnast. Two-time Olympic champion (2012 and 2016), a five-time Olympic medalist, three-time world champion, five-time European champion, multiple winner of world and European Championships. Honored master of sports of Russia.

Alia was born 30 September 1994 in Yegoryevsk, Russia. Father of gymnast, was the bronze medalist of the Olympic games 1976 in Montreal, Greco-Roman wrestling, as well as a coach in the sports school of CSKA. Aliyah's mother, a physics teacher.

At the Olympic Games in London Aliya won the silver medal in team all-around, bronze in the individual all-around and floor exercise and gold in competitions on the uneven bars.

At the Universiade in Kazan Aliya won a gold medal in team and individual all-around and on uneven bars. Also received a silver medal on the balance beam.

At the Olympic Games in Rio Aliya won in the national team Russia to a silver medal team championship, a bronze medal in the individual championship and also the second time in a row won the title of champion in exercises on uneven bars.

Thank you for your attention! 😊

