

Strange Sports!

Extreme Ironing

- Extreme Ironing is an extreme sport in which people take an ironing board to a remote location and iron items of clothing.

Cheese Rolling

- The Cooper's Hill Cheese-Rolling is an annual event at Cooper's Hill, Gloucester, England.
- People from all over the world take part.
- From the top of the hill a round of Double Gloucester cheese is rolled, and competitors race down the hill after it. The first person over the finish line at the bottom of the hill wins the cheese.
- Competitors are aiming to catch the cheese, however it has around a one second head start and can reach speeds up to 70 mph (112 km/h).

Man Vs. Horse Marathon

- The Man versus Horse Marathon is an annual race over 22 miles, where runners compete against horse-riders. The race takes place in Wales every June.

Bog Snorkelling

- Bog snorkelling is a sporting event that consists of competitors swimming through over 100 meters of water filled trench cut through a peat bog, in the shortest time possible.
- Competitors must wear snorkels and flippers, and complete the course without using normal swimming strokes, relying on flipper power alone. Wet suits are not compulsory, but are usually worn.

Toe Wrestling

- Toe wrestling is a sport that started in the UK. Toe wrestling is similar to arm wrestling.
- To play, players must take off their shoes and socks. It is common for each player to remove the other players shoes and socks.
- Players must link toes and each players feet must touch flat on the other person's feet.
