

e

1900

Date: ca. 1858

Note on verso of mount:
"Oscar Wilde as a child.
From a miniature belonging to Robert Ross. Please return this photograph to C.S.
Millard ..."

A black-and-white copy of the hand-tinted original belonging to Merlin Holland.

Photographer:
Metropolitan Photographic Company

Place: Dublin

Date: early 1860s

Photographer: Elliott & Fry, London

Place: London

Date: 19 March 1881?

In pencil on back: 19
March 1881

In pencil on original matte (since removed):
14 [corrected to 19]
March 1881

Published: Oscar
Wilde's Oxford
Notebooks, frontis.

Photographer:
Napoleon Sarony,

Place: New York

Date: early Jan. 1882
Numbered at lower left: 12

Provenance: note on verso: Bought at J.C.
Tomlinson sale

Published: Holland,
The Wilde Album,
following p. 63

Photographer:
Napoleon Sarony,

Place: New York

Date: early Jan. 1882
Stamp of George D.
Russell, Boston, on verso

Note: there is an almost identical Sarony pose, in which Wilde is holding a book.

Photographer:
Jabez Hughes &
Mullins, Regina
House, Ryde

Place: Isle of Wight

Dated on verso in pencil: 1885

Signed by Wilde
on the mount

Wrote

Dear Col. Moore

Mr. Moore paid only 250 dollars - and no expenses at all

I did not like to stop lecturing as he interested me to go on. I thought it best then that our side of the contract
should be perfectly carried out - What to do now I leave to you.
I think our only chance is to give him
two weeks at 700 a week - He will do

Oskar Wilde
Boston
1882

Dublin, 1 on Merrion
Square. Here, Wilde lived in
his childhood, here is the beauty Lady Wilde.

1 Merrion Square Dublin

1. When and where was Oscar Wild born?

2. What were his parents?

3. Where did Oscar wild study?

4. How did he look like being in Oxford?

5. What was he famous for in Britain?

6. What his novel is the most famous?

What is it about?

7. What Wild's plays do you know?

8. What tragedy happened in his life?