The cities of Ukraine

Kyiv

Kyiv is the capital of Ukraine with population of about 3 million people. It is situated on the Dnieper River and boasts architectural monuments that are recognized world treasures. Kiev is the largest cultural, scientific and industrial center of Ukraine, the place of religious pilgrimage and a very attractive tourist destination. Its beautiful landscapes, parks and gardens charm and captivate. Hospitable Ukrainians will be delighted to introduce Slavic culture to their foreign guests.

Lviv

Lviv is a very poetic city steeped in legends both ancient and relatively new! Narrow medieval streets paved with stones, architectural decoration done in different styles – all preserved in its original form. In spite of all the whims of history the city has not lost its Ukrainian spirit. So it is no wonder that the central part of the city is included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage. You can admire monuments of different eras created by the combination of numerous national cultural traditions in this open-air museum for hours.

Dnipropetrovsk

Dnipropetrovsk is a dynamic and lively city.

The city is surprising green along the wide and slow-moving Dnieper river and has remarkable embankments, long boulevards and spacious parks. It is also the major centre of high-technology industries, education, machine-building, metallurgy and trade. The city is not only famous for its commercial industry, but also its green hills and deep history.

Kharkiv

Kharkiv is not only an industrial and business center of Ukraine, it is also a city with a long and glorious history. From 1918 to 1934 years Kharkov was the official capital of Ukraine. In 2004 the city celebrated its 350 anniversary and today it is one of the largest cultural and scientific centers of Ukraine and Eastern Europe. The city has about 60 scientific-research institutes, 13 national universities and numerous professional, technical and private higher education institutions, offering its students a wide range of disciplines.

Odessa

Odessa - legendary city of romance, art, humor, poems, theaters and museums. Odessa is a very special city - city with its own very special culture.

Odessa is situated at the Black Sea coast. It is a very important port and one of the most beautiful cities in Ukraine .

Odessa itself is full of historical, architectural, cultural and scientific interest, proud of its past and its traditions.
