Corrected by: Alexsander the greatest

- Dear Madam! I'm writing to you because I ordered some things in your Internet shop. I have got one red woolen sweater, medium size, and light blue jeans, large size, but I have ordered a yellow woolen sweater, large size, and light blue jeans, medium size. I disappointed that you're working so irresponsible. I wanted to take this clothes in my trip. But I can't do it now because red sweater is too much vivid for me and I also can't wear this big jeans. Please, refund my offer. I have already sent back all clothes. Best wishes your customer

- Refund is a kind of British word, I recommend you to look for American English, it's a lot better & easier =)
