

Volyn tourism

Alona Shuliachynska

Volyn region

Located in northwestern Ukraine, in the forest and steppe zones. Area - 20,2 thousand sq. M. km (3,3% of Ukraine). Forests cover 649.1 thousand. Ha - a third of the region. 130 rivers flowing through Volyn. A special attraction for tourists celebrated the south-western part of Volyn - land of forests and lakes

Tourism development in cities in Volyn region largely due to the presence of monuments of medieval military architecture, works of art, archeology. State of preservation different. Before attractions in the region include construction of defensive castle and monastery buildings. Castles of Volyn region features well preserved ancient architecture. These include Lutsk (fourteenth and fifteenth centuries.) Lyubomlsky (XV-XVI centuries.) Locks

Prince Liubard

Entertainment is a festival that is held in Lutsk castle.? Tourists have the opportunity to watch the joust, assault fortifications, archers competitions, performances of dance and music groups. Lutsk castle itself is well preserved buildings is an example of defensive architecture of the late thirteenth-fourteenth

Ukrainian festival of Ukrainian alternative music
"Bandershtat" - first held in 2007 and has since become an annual event. Passes to Volyn Lutsk.

At the festival there are performances of many Ukrainian bands and conducting workshops different direction, which promoted through pro-Ukrainian style of thinking, Ukrainian language, culture, vitality and more.

A promising for development in Volyn region is green tourism in small towns. Traditionally, it develops into Shatsky, Lubomilskiy areas.

Favorable climatic conditions, large forests, numerous bodies of water, mineral springs, therapeutic mud reserves are factors that promote the development of tourism industry.

In addition, the region intersecting important transport routes connecting Eastern Europe to Central and Western. This causes the activation of international cooperation, especially in tourism. The region maintains good neighborly relations with the neighboring provinces of Poland. Here the cross-border association "Euroregion Bug "

Literary-Memorial Museum of Lesya Ukrainian opened in 1949 in the family homestead in the village Kolodiazhne, where from 1882 to 1907 lived intermittently poet.

The name of the poet as a picturesque tract associated Nechymne in a wooded area belonging to Skulynskoho forestry, allegedly inspired her to create "Forest Song".

Olyka Castle - Castle Olytsi in Volyn region that for centuries belonged to the Radziwill family.

Almost all the towns of Volyn region have attractions and facilities that are certain historical value, but tourists are few. This is caused by a weak first information support, as road infrastructure, tourism infrastructure inconsistency with international standards, lack of accommodation and catering facilities and low maintenance in them. In urban area relatively poorly developed entertainment industry .

