

Education system in America, Britain and in Russia.

Выполнили учащиеся 10А:
Камбуров Д., Ломухин П.,
Момотов Н., Неклюдова Н.

When child's education usually starts?

□ American education:

A child's education usually starts at the age of 4 or 5 years. Kindergarten prepare the child for life at elementary school.

□ British education:

In Britain children start school when they are 5 years old.

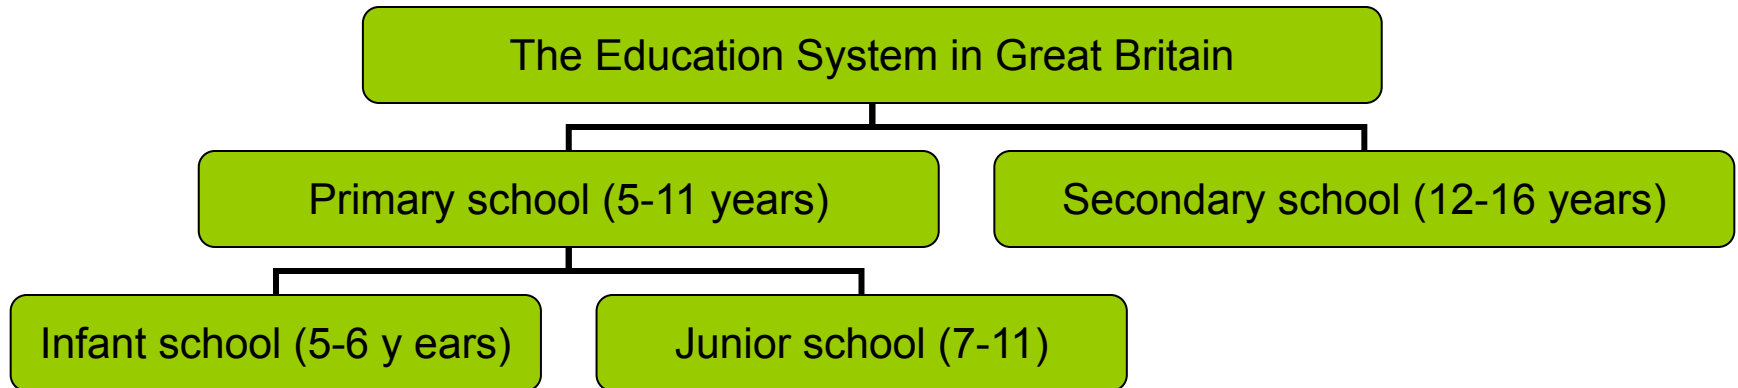

They spend six years in primary school, and then go to the secondary school.

Russian school:

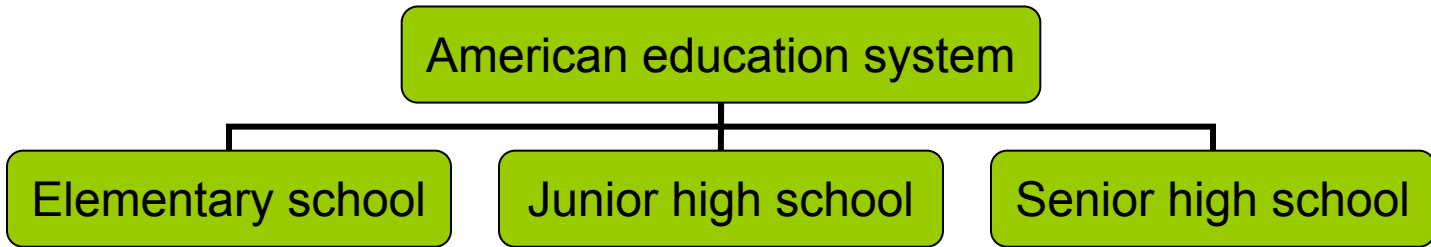

В России дети идут в школу в возрасте 6-7 лет. До школы ребенок может посещать детский сад.

Steps of education in Russia, America and UK.

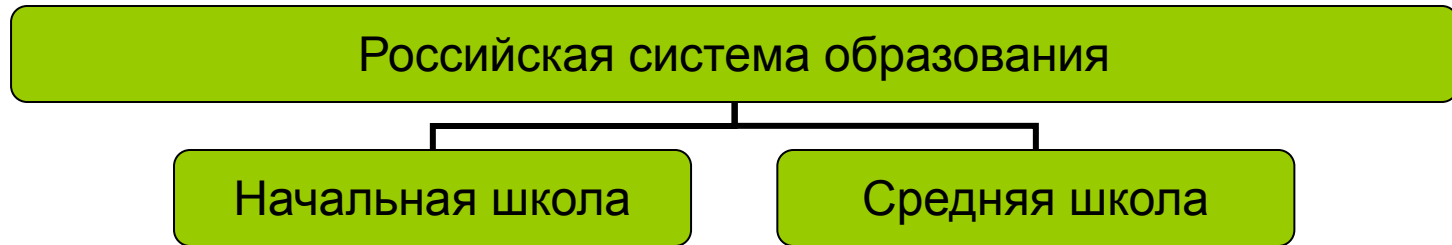

British Education System

Education system in America.

Russian school.

What exams students usually pass?

What exams students usually pass?

American school:

- In American school children learn English, science, social studies, maths and physical education.

British school:

- In British school children learn English, science, social studies, maths and physical education.

Russian school:

- В России школьники изучают: Русский язык, математику, черчение, физику, английский язык, литературу и другие предметы.

What exams students pass in their schools.

American school:

- At the end of high school, students graduate with a high school diploma if they complete their studies satisfactorily. The grades go from A (excellent) to F (fail).

British school:

- At the end of the 5th year in Britain many students take a national examination, the GCSE.

Russian school:

- В России дети сдают ЕГЭ, по окончании 11ого класса. Этот экзамен обязателен для всех учащихся.

The End