TRAITS OF CHARACTER

What is this life when full of care

We have no time to stay and stare?
No time to see the woods we pass
Where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
No time to see in broad daylight
Streams full of stars like skies at night.
No time to see the beauty glance
And watch her feet- how they can dance!
A poor life this is – when full of care
We have no time to stay and stare!
