- English football defender, captain of "Aston Villa", playing in the Football League championship of England. The former captain of the England team from 2006 to 2010 and from 2011 to February 2012 and ex-captain of Chelsea. Five-time champion of England. Terry was voted best defender of the UEFA Champions League in the 2004/05 and 2007/08, Player 2005 version of football Professional football Association and was included in the national team in the world by FIFA for four straight years: 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008. He was the only British player included in the symbolic team of the world Cup 2006.

CHILDHOOD AND ADOLESCENCE

- Terry was born in Barking, East London, in my childhood I attended secondary school in Eastbury. Terry's football career started in the "Sorabe", an Amateur club participating in the so-called Sunday football League. In the matches for this Amateur club has noted many of the current stars of the Premier League, such as Sol Campbell, Lee Bowyer, Jermain Defoe, Ledli king, Paul Konchesky (he subsequently married the sister of John) and others. Before you get into the system of training youth Chelsea at the age of 14, he played for the club's youth and reserve teams as a midfielder. However, due to the lack of Central defenders he moved to defense in his current position.

- In 2007, he became the first captain, lifted the FA Cup at the new Wembley stadium after a victory over "Manchester United" with the score 1:0 and the first player to score goal for team in this stadium, in the match against Brazil. However, in 2007/08 Terry along with Chelsea have not won a single trophy, losing in the final of the Football League Cup in extra time, Tottenham Hotspur, losing the championship to the Premier League and the Cup winner of the UEFA Champions League "Manchester United" lost in the penalty shootout, where John missed the point in the penalty shoot-out, slipping on the wet pitch. If he scored, Chelsea would have won the match. After the final in Moscow, teammate Frank Lampard described Terry as "a man's man"

THE CHAMPIONSHIP AND THE CAPTAIN'S ARMBAND

- ▶ After the departure of the team's Marcel Desailly a new coach "Chelsea" Jose Mourinho has appointed Terry the new captain. John did not long survive the departure longtime partner in defense, forming a Duo of defenders with William Gallas. This choice was fateful in 2004/05, when Chelsea rewriting on the way a few records in the Premier League (the highest number of matches "zero" and the greatest number of points scored), won the title. Terry this season won the award for Player of the year by the PFA footballers, scored 8 goals, including the winning goal in the 1/8 finals of the UEFA Champions League, in the match against Barcelona. He was also named the Best defender of the UEFA Champions League.
- ▶ In September, he entered the symbolic team of the world by the International Federation of associations of professional football players. This team was selected by a vote of professional footballers in more than 40 countries. Next season Chelsea defended their title, scoring in the championship, 91 points ahead and won the title in a match with "Manchester United", beating him 3:0.

PERSONAL LIFE

- ▶ Terry currently resides in Oxshott, Surrey. John has an older brother, Paul, who is also a professional footballer and stands for "Tarok".
- ▶ With his wife Tony and John met in 2000, and since then they are together. In 2006, she gave birth to Terry twins — a boy Georgie John and girl summer rose. John celebrated the birth of twins on the pitch after the goal against the national team of Hungary, he made a gesture, showing the cradle. In 2007, the couple married. Honeymoon John and Tony spent on the yacht of Roman Abramovich in the Mediterranean sea.
- ▶ John had an affair with the former girlfriend of England defender Wayne Bridge — 33-year-old model Vanessa Perroncel. This led to a debate about whether Terry to wear the armband of the captain of the national team. Sam bridge refused to play for the national team as long as it would include John Terry.

SPONSORSHIP

- ▶ John Terry and Michael Owen are the main faces of the sports equipment manufacturer Umbro and often introduce new products, as well as a new form of the England team. He also appeared in commercials of Samsung, "Nationwide" and the Swedish bookmaker Svenska Spel and also on the cover of the games series Pro Evolution Soccer.
