Honorable Secretary General, respected chairs, fellow delegates, dear friends and guests of the house,
The delegation of the People's Republic of China is highly proud to be present at the 2020 Saint Petersburg International Model UN conference.

The house is to discuss some exceedingly significant problems, and China would like to speak up on the topic, most global: world terrorism. Terrorists' attacks are now so widespread and unpredictable it's frightening to let our children out of our homes. Terrorist organizations, such as ISIS, are tearing our world apart. Even in China, whose government is doing its' absolute best to fight terrorists, we can observe the threat of spreading of radical Islamists. They're armed, determined, unpredictable and fearless, that is what makes them so dangerous and frightens millions.

China, a very economically strong and stable socialist country of equality, whose people are willing to work for the welfare of humanity can't just stay aside of this conflict, when it comes to the wellbeing of millions! We are ready to support any nations, who are desperately fighting those destroying the peaceful world we have been building for decades. We and ready to provide financial and humanitarian support, we are READY TO FIGHT!

If we unite, we are sure, it will be possible to put an end to terrorism and fear before it is too late to undertake any actions.

The delegation of the People's Republic of China hopes this conference will be extremely productive and is sure that all the participants will be able to achieve consent in all the problems mentioned in the agenda.

We thank the conference for the attention and yield the floor back to the Secretary General.

Correcting mistakes

Hello friends,

I am happy to be at SPIMUN and to present the delegation of China.

I want to talk about terrorism. Terrorists' attacks are now so widespread and unpredictable it's frightening to let our children out of our homes. Terrorist organizations, such as ISIS, are tearing our world apart. My country, UK, is doing everything to stop terrorists.

China can't just stay aside of this conflict when it comes to the wellbeing of millions! We are ready to support any nations, who are desperately fighting those destroying the peaceful world we have been building for decades. I am ready to fight!

If we unite, I know, it will be possible to put an end to terrorism and fear before it is too late.

The delegation of the People's Republic of China hopes this conference will be fruitful.

I am done, goodbye.

Start with the words 'Honorable Secretary General, respected Chairs and members of the House,'

DO NOT USE 'I'!

USE 'WE' OR 'OUR DELEGATION'
INSTEAD

Remember which country you are representing!

Use official language and more complex grammar constructions

End your speech with the words:
'Thank you for your attention, we yield the floor back to the Secretary General'
