Listen. What can you say about speaker?

My name is Fred Gibson. I live in Scotland in the city of Glasgow. Glasgow is an old city with beautiful squares and green streets. It is the largest city in Scotland. It has a university, the university of Glasgow. My brother is a student of this University. I love Glasgow but I was not born here. I was born in England, in London. My aunt Emily and my uncle George live in London. I often visit them.

My family is not large: my parents, my brother and my granny. We live at 47 High Street. My parents are teachers, I'm a pupil and go to school. My interests are photography and computers.
