

TOO and ENOUGH

too / enough

- He did badly in the exam because he was _____ (nervous).

too / enough

- He did badly in the exam because he was too nervous.

too / enough

- We didn't buy the car because it wasn't _____ (big).

too / enough

- We didn't buy the car because it wasn't big enough.

too / enough

- Mary couldn't post all the letters because she didn't have _____ (stamps).

too / enough

- Mary couldn't post all the letters because she didn't have enough stamps.

too / enough

- I can't eat this soup because it's _____ (hot).

too / enough

- I can't eat this soup because it's too hot.

too / enough

- Have you had _____ (food), or would you like some more?

too / enough

- Have you had enough food, or would you like some more?

too / enough

- Slow down! You're driving _____ (fast).

too / enough

- Slow down! You're driving too fast.

too / enough

- We couldn't buy the tickets because we didn't have _____ (money).

too / enough

- We couldn't buy the tickets because we didn't have enough money.

too / enough

- I couldn't lift the suitcase because I wasn't _____ (strong).

too / enough

- I couldn't lift the suitcase because I wasn't strong enough.

too / enough

- I couldn't see her because it was _____ (dark).

too / enough

- I couldn't see her because it was too dark.

too / enough

- I haven't got _____ (clothes). I must buy some more.

too / enough

- I haven't got enough clothes. I must buy some more.

too / enough

- We didn't go swimming because the water was _____ (cold).

too / enough

- We didn't go swimming because the water was too cold.

too / enough

- I can't decide what to do because I haven't got _____ (information).

too / enough

- I can't decide what to do because I haven't got enough information.

too / enough

- Robert didn't go to work because he didn't feel _____ (well).

too / enough

- Robert didn't go to work because he didn't feel well enough.

too / enough

- You can't change the situation now. It's _____ (late).

too / enough

- You can't change the situation now. It's too late.

too / enough

- He shouldn't play in the team because he isn't _____ (good).

too / enough

- He shouldn't play in the team because he isn't good enough.

THE END

