

Mormons: The influence of Christian ethics on success in business

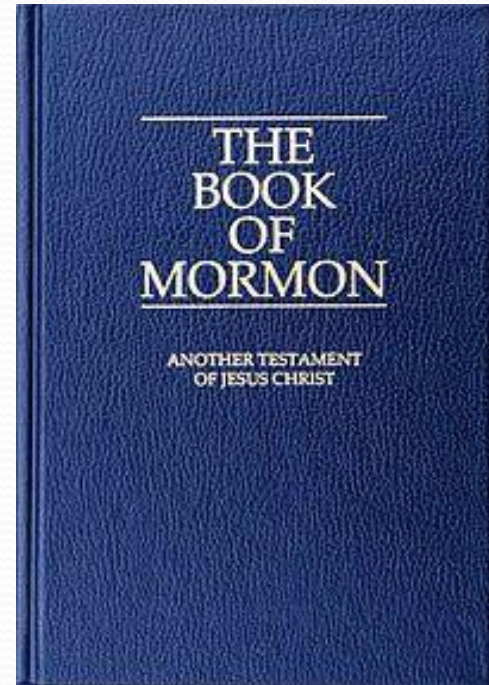

Christian doctrine

Attitude to labor in the light of this teaching:

- From I century to XVI (Orthodoxy, Catholicism)
- From XVI to XIX (Protestantism)
- From XIX to today (New Religious Movements)

Mormon doctrine

- It is not a Christian church, because some of their beliefs differ from mainstream Christianity
- Unique view of cosmology, history, theology
- Calls not only for constant spiritual practices

Successful Mormons

The reasons of this phenomenon

- Respect for the perseverance, diligence
- Missionary work, which brings communication skills, independence, non-standard thinking
- The corporate structure of the church, permanent “career advancement”

The reasons of this phenomenon

- Disuse of alcohol, cigarettes, drugs, coffee
- The emphasis on family values, support
- “Divine” motivation to success

