

infinitives

full infinitive

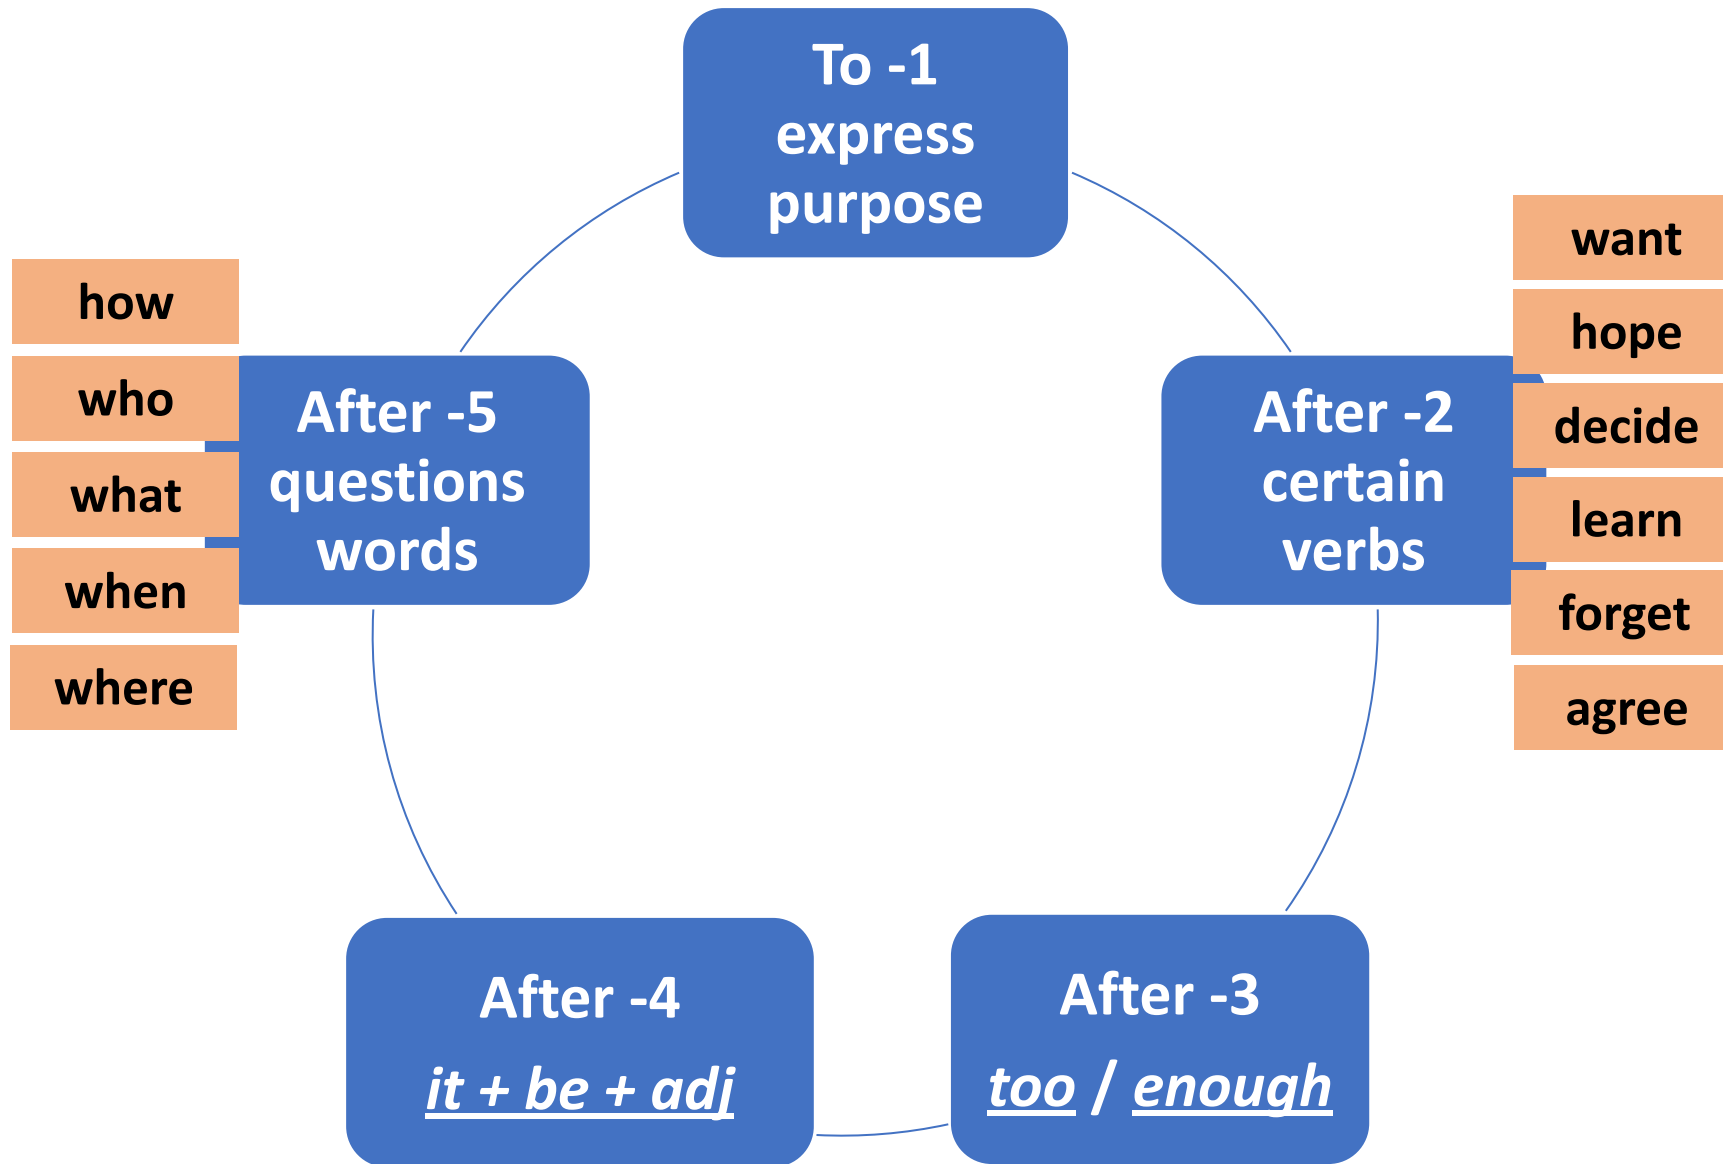

to

v

bare infinitive

v

Full infinitive

Full infinitives

to

v

I went to the post office

why?

The students studied very hard

why?

She is going to go to England

why?

Full infinitives

to

v

I wanted to meet her.

She decided to buy the dress.

I hope to see you again.

I forget to tell you we have an exam tomorrow.

Full infinitives

to

v

Larry is too tired to go jogging today.

It isn't warm enough to swim

She isn't old enough to drive

it is too late to go alone.

Full infinitives

to

v

It is nice to meet you .

It was great to see you after such a long time .

It is necessary to go the party tonight .

It is difficult to understand Chinese.

Full infinitives

to

v

I don't know where to go

We were wondering where to park the car .

He asked me how to use the washing machine .

Do you understand what to do?

Bare infinitive (v)

Bare infinitives

v

I may go to the party

We can park the car .

you could ask questions.

Bare infinitives

v

let me ask you a question

She made me cry

Gerund -ing

As a -1
subject

After -2
certain verbs

After -4
preposition

After certain -3
expression

like

enjoy

finish

avoid

imagine

hate

about

in

of

at

Don't mind

It's worth

It's no use

How about

ing- form

v-ing

smoking is bad for you.

exercising is a good way of keeping fit.

skating is fun.

ing- form

v-ing

I like swimming

I enjoy shopping

They finished writing the lesson.

ing- form

v-ing

He can't stand smoking

I don't mind getting up early.

How about going shopping.

ing- form

v-ing

She is good at cooking

I am so excited about going to university next year.

Is she still interested in learning Spanish language?