the holiday, which confuses many foreigners when they first hear about it. It's not an official day-off, but many people take the celebration of this rather seriously!

Russia was one of the few countries that refused to change to the Gregorian calendar in 1582 and continued to celebrate all its holidays as before.

Holidays

This, undoubtedly, is one of the brightest events in the life of every person. For students and their parents this holiday is associated with the line on which the Director of the school utters a solemn speech, and excited and smart first graders give flowers to my first teachers, which will be remembered for a lifetime.

It is a holiday when people buy or make cards and send them to people they love.

They should not write their names on the cards.

Persons who get them must guess who sent them.

It is a spring holiday when people go to the church and cook dinner for the whole family.

They dye eggs and present their relatives and friends with them.

It is a winter holiday when people usually visit their friends.

There is a funny tradition: the First Foot. This is the first visitor who enters the house in the morning.

Give me the gift of a grip-top sock,
A clip drape shipshape tip top sock.
Not your spinslick slapstick slipshod stock,
But a plastic, elastic grip-top sock.
None of your fantastic slack swap slop

Theophilus Thistle, the successful thistle sifter,
In sifting a sieve full of un-sifted thistles,
Thrust three thousand thistles through the thick of his thumb.

If Theophilus Thistle, the successful thistle sifter,
Can thrust three thousand thistles through the thick of his thumb,
See that thou, in sifting a sieve full of unsifted thistles,
Thrust not three thousand thistles through the thick of thy thumb
