- Who were they?

2013 is the 400th anniversary of the Romanov 's house

- The last Emperor of Russia and his family: Grand Duchess Anastasia, Olga, Tatiana, Maria, Tsarevich Alexei.

Nicholas Romanov

He was born on 16 May 1868 at Tsarskoye Selo, St. Petersburg. He was the supreme ruler of the Russian Empire from the late 19th century until 1917.

Nicholas Romanov married German princess Alexandra of Hessen-Darmstadt

- She was the Grand-daughter of Queen Victoria.
- They disliked St. Petersburg.
- The capital was too modern for them and they moved the family residence in 1895 to Alexander Palace in Tsarskoye Selo, where they lived in seclusion.
