

Ancient Egypt

Daily Life for the Poor

- Most Egyptians were farmers which meant that they were poor
- Children did not have much time for play unlike nowadays
- Boys learned their father's job and girls learned how to take care of the home and family from their mothers

Houses

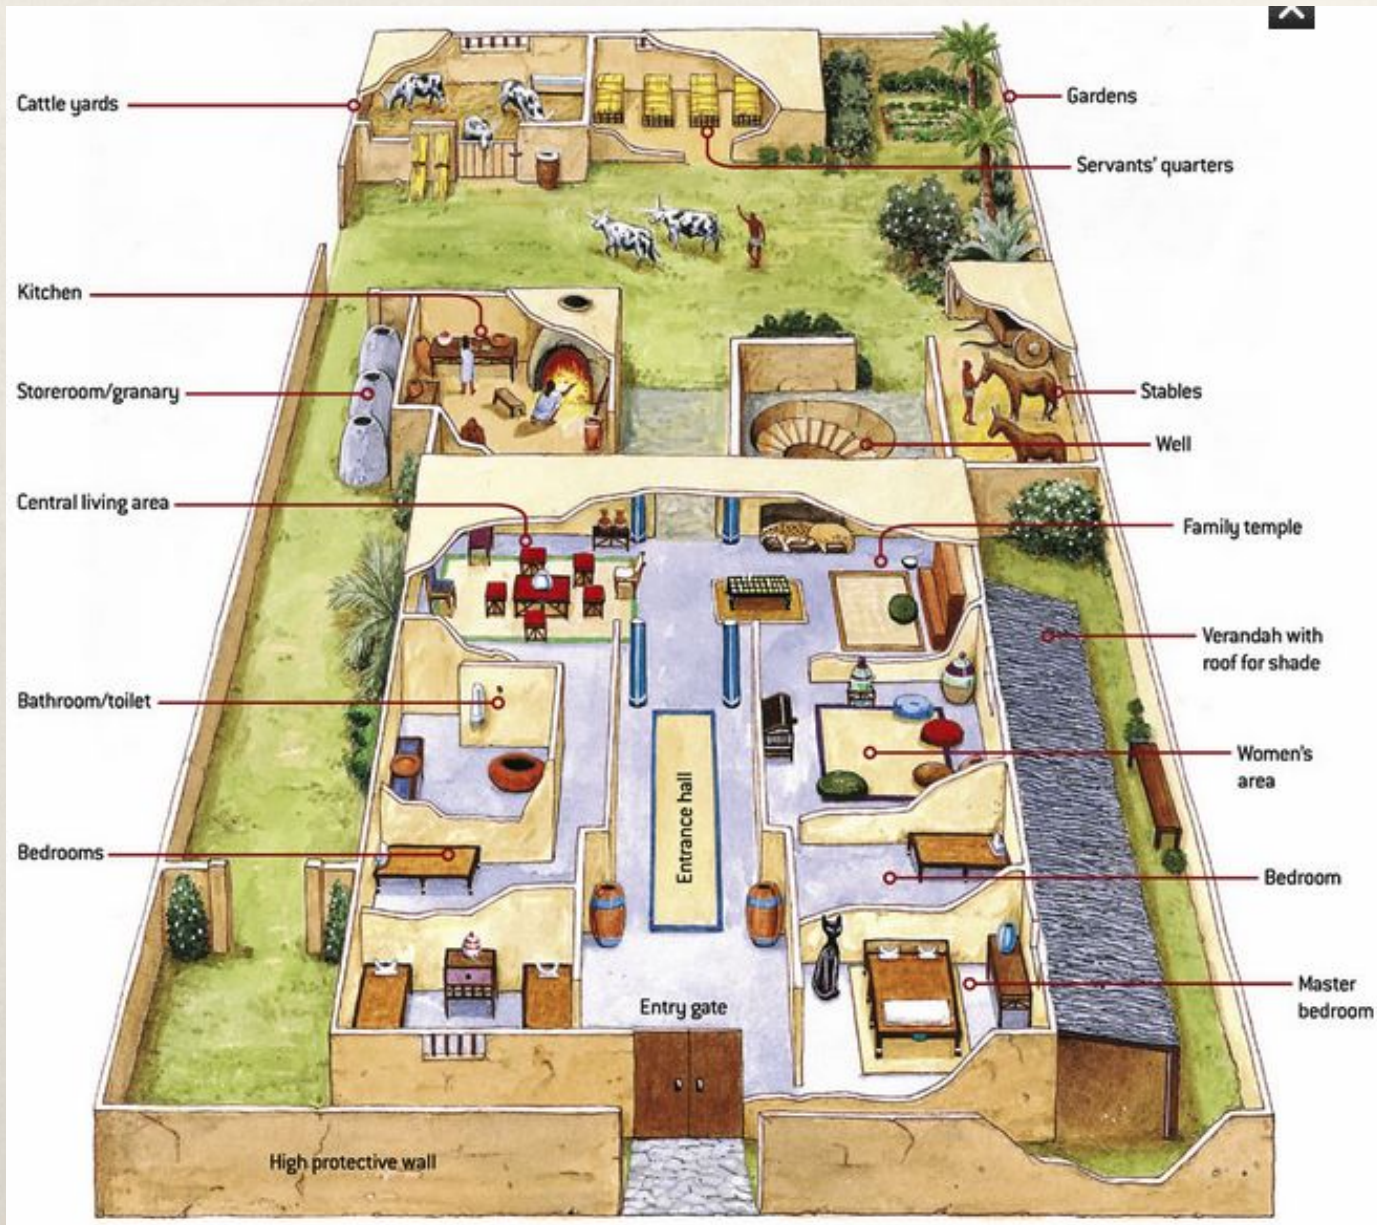

Daily Life for the Rich

- Men were busy all day trading along the Nile River or being priests
- Rich women had many rights like running their own businesses and owning land
- Both men and women wore eye make-up made from black ashes
- Children had lots of playtime

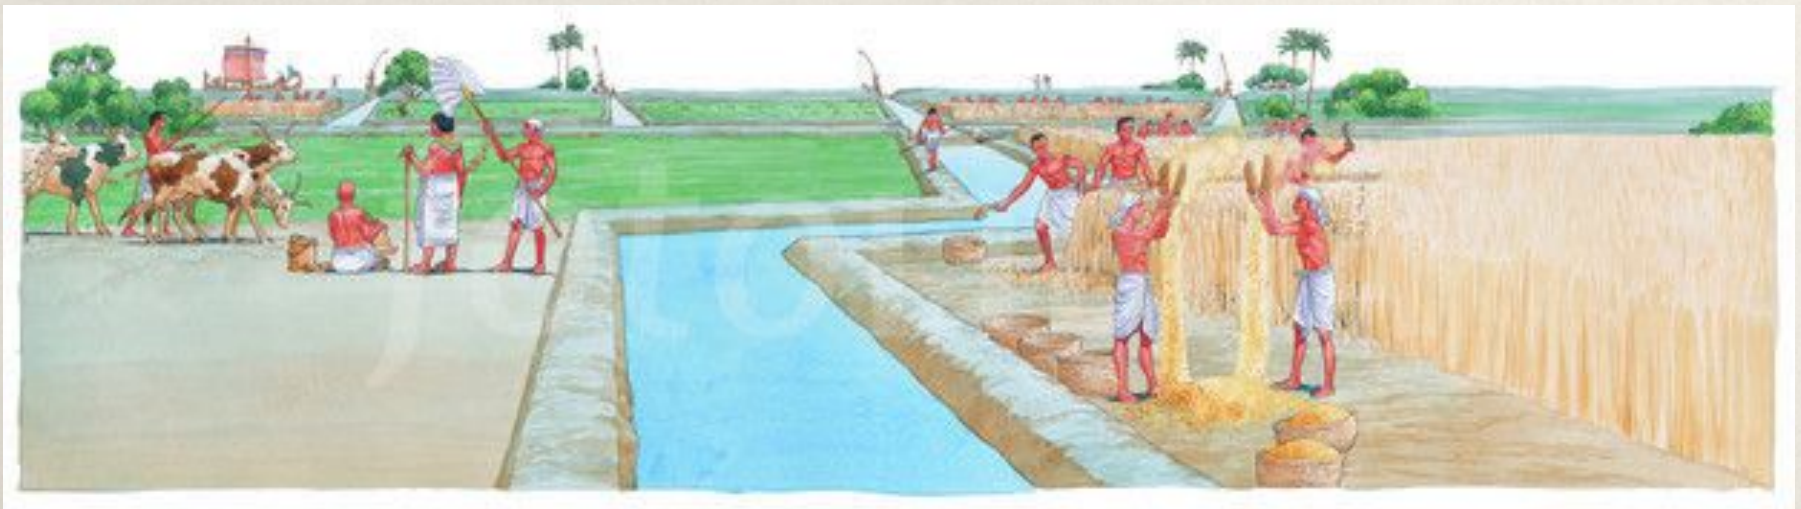

Rich Homes

Farming

- ❑ Most people lived near the Nile River because of the water and crops that were grown along it
- ❑ The Nile River floods a couple months out of the year which leaves great soil for crops to grow
- ❑ Planted papyrus right next to the river which was used to make paper

Let's Learn More about Farming in Ancient Egypt!

