James Aldridge is a well-known English writer, the author of many different interesting books, one of them is "the Last inch". The Last inch is a splendid book that you want to read again and again. As you understand, it has a very gripping narrative. The main action of the book is set in the desert on the shore of the red sea. The plot of the story is meticulously constructed. The story is told by the author.

My favorite book

The plot of the work is simple. The main characters are father Ben and son Davy. Ben flew an airplane and explored for oil. Later, Ben lost his job because the company closed. He wanted to fly to the Bay and take pictures of the sharks. He took Davy with him. Ben had dived under the water a lot, but the last time had almost taken his life. Davy was very worried about his father, began to dress the wounds from the sharks and drag him to the plane with the last of his strength. Due to severe bites and frequent loss of consciousness, Ben could not fly the plane, so all hope remained on Davy. His father told him what to do, and they came. Ben had surgery and decided to spend more time with his son.

My favorite book

I recommend this book to everyone . It tells about courage, masculinity and purposefulness. The work teaches us not to give up, to look for a way out in all difficult situations.

An open book with two blank, aged, yellowish pages. The pages show signs of wear, including creases, discoloration, and small dark spots. The binding is visible in the center crease.

Thanks for your attention!
