

Comparative adjectives

tall

taller

hot

hotter

happy

happier

:Rule 1

Mark is shorter than Alan.

Adj+er+ than

Alan is taller than Mark.

When we want to compare
between two things we use
'adjective+er +than'

Ice is colder than ice-cream.

cold

colder

The purple pencil is longer than the green pencil.

long

longer

Jumbo is fatter than Tom.

Tom

fat

Jumbo

fatter

:Spelling

When we add er to the adjectives that end with Y we change y into i -1

happy	happ i er
Funny	fun n i e r
heavy	heav i er

When we have a word that ends with a -2

.consonant /vowel / consonant we double the last consonant

thin	thin n er
fat	fatt e r
big	bigg e r

When we add er to the adjectives that end with 'e' we only add 'r':-3 huge  huger large  larger

Bob is younger than Homer (YOUNG).

Homer is older than Alice (OLD) .

Alice is slimmer than Bob (SLIM).

Bob is shorter than Homer (SHORT) .

Homer is fatter than Bob (FAT) .

Homer is uglier than Alice (UGLY) .

Homer is slower than Bob (SLOW) .

Bob is tidier than Homer (TIDY) .

Alice is nicer than Bob (NICE) .

Alice has longer hair than Bob (LONG) .

Alice can run faster than Homer (FAST) .

BOB
28 years old
55 kilos
1.50 mt

HOMER
39 years old
80 kilos
1.55 mt

ALICE
9 years old
33 kilos
1.20 mt

:Rule 2

More dangerous

More difficult

More crowded

If the adjective has 2 or more syllables (except when the last syllable is -y) we use
'more + adjective'.

The steak is more expensive than the fish.

The butterfly is more beautiful than the frog.

English is more popular than Spanish.

:Practice

He thinks Chinese is more difficult than French.

Cars are more comfortable than bikes.

This dress is more beautiful than that dress.

Tokyo is more crowded than Yaroslavl.

Snowboarding is more exciting than football.

Difficult

Comfortable

Beautiful

Crowded

Exciting

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION