

GUESS THESE MUSIC IDIOMS

To arrive there happy and delighted to attend.

You boast about your achievements and abilities.

The person makes the important decisions about something.

You are wasting time while problems threaten to destroy.

When things go wrong, neither side is innocent.

It is exactly what you had wanted to hear.

You take a subordinate role behind someone more important.

You talk about things in a more positive way than the reality.

He believes in a positive result.
Everybody else is sure it will not happen.