Give Russian equivalents of this proverb:

The history of your country is the history of its people.

What do you feel when you pronounce the word "Motherland"?

*Менің елім - Қазақстан!
Моя родина - Казахстан!*

Kazakhstan is the ninth largest country in the world. At over a million square miles, this country has it all! Mountains and glaciers, vast steppes and desert and over a hundred and twenty nationalities! The word “Kazakh” itself translates a “free, independent nomad.”

Match two parts. Give me equivalents in Russian language.

The Kazakh people have a long tradition of peace, tolerance. Children learn hospitality and respect from a very young age.

If you visit a Kazakh household - whether or not you are expected - those present will stand up in greeting as you enter the door.

You will be seated on the tor - the special guest seat and offered a cup of either kumiss or tea.

It is considered extremely poor manners to disturb the weary or hungry guest, so the host often remains silent until you are refreshed.
