London is the capital of Great Britain, its political, economic and cultural centre. It's one of the largest cities in the world. Its population is more than million people. London is situated on the river Thames. The city is very old and beautiful. It was founded more than two thousand years ago.

Traditionally London is divided into several parts: the City, the West End, the East End and Westminster.

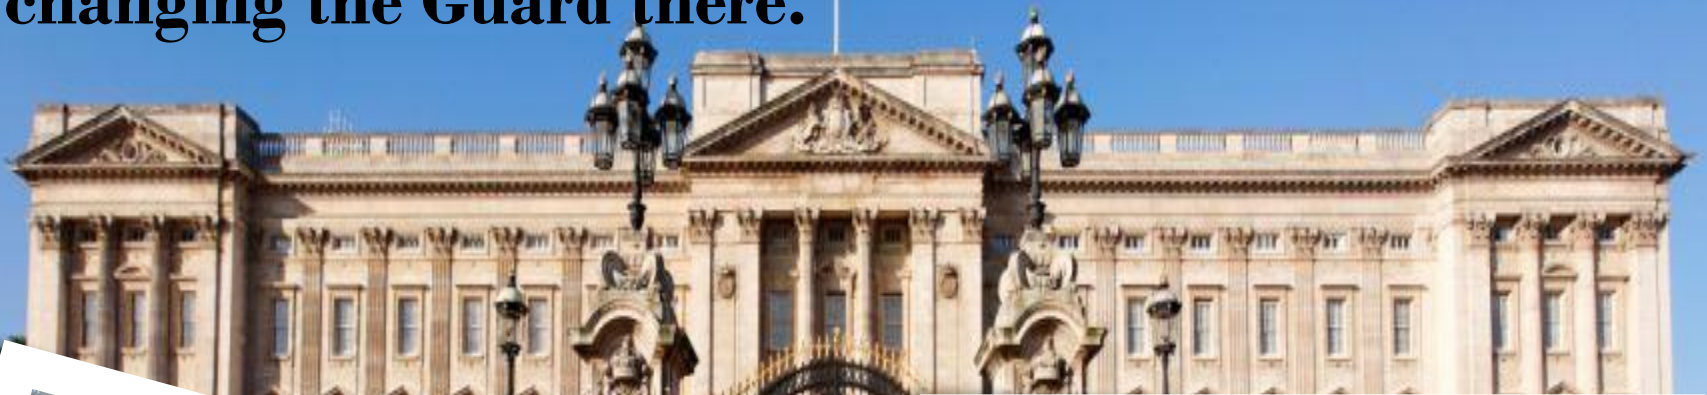

The City is the oldest part of London, its financial and business centre. The heart of the City is the Stock Exchange.

Westminster is the most important part of the capital. It's the administrative centre. The Houses of Parliament, the seat of the British Government, are there. It's a very beautiful building with two towers and a very big clock called Big Ben.

Buckingham Palace is the Queen's official London residence.
Tourists always go to see the ceremony of changing the Guard there.

Trafalgar Square is the central square of the city.

To the right of the square there is the National Gallery which has a fine collection of European paintings.

London is also famous for its beautiful parks.
Hyde Park is the most democratic park in the world, as anyone can say anything he likes there.
