Study Abroad

Education Abroad

Today's competitive world wants a qualification which is being better and different from others.

Nowadays studying abroad is thoughts and hopes of many students. Especially many students dream to study in England.

At first, studying abroad gives huge opportunities for further high-level positions at work. Abroad education is highly valued in our country. Many employers are ready to take such personnel eagerly and with big pleasure. As for me, I want to study abroad, but this may not always be available and easy as it seems at the beginning.

Secondly, there are also some minuses. Many people who go to study in other countries stay there to live and work. It's a pity that our country is losing good and qualified people. Those who study abroad miss the family and friends very much; they do not often have opportunities to meet with those who are dear to their heart. So the students are usually under the pressure of stress. But to be honest, learning is good everywhere if you do it with pleasure.

STUDY ABROAD

The American system of school education differs from the systems in other countries.

There are state public schools, private elementary schools and private secondary schools. Public schools are free and private schools are fee-paying. Each state has its own system of public schools.

Elementary education begins at the age of six or seven, when a child goes to the first grade (form). At the age of sixteen schoolchildren leave the elementary school and may continue their education at one of the secondary schools or high schools, as they call them.
