

It's Halloween night and it's dark.

The moon is in the sky
and the monsters will come back.

I'm this little pumpkin
sitting near the castle waiting to see the biggest monster.

It's almost midnight
and a black cat comes.
“Miaououou” she purrs calling her friends.

Her friends come soon.
Here they are! One black cat, two black cats, three black cats going to the castle to find the bats.

The cats go in the castle and scare the bats! Look at them: one bat, two bats,
three bats, four bats, five bats fly away scared by the cats!

But what's going on now?
There's a strange noise in the air.
The ghosts are coming ! It's their turn to scare!

One ghost, two ghosts, three ghosts, four ghosts, five ghosts, six ghosts, seven ghosts BOO in the air!

Oh my God, I feel so scared!

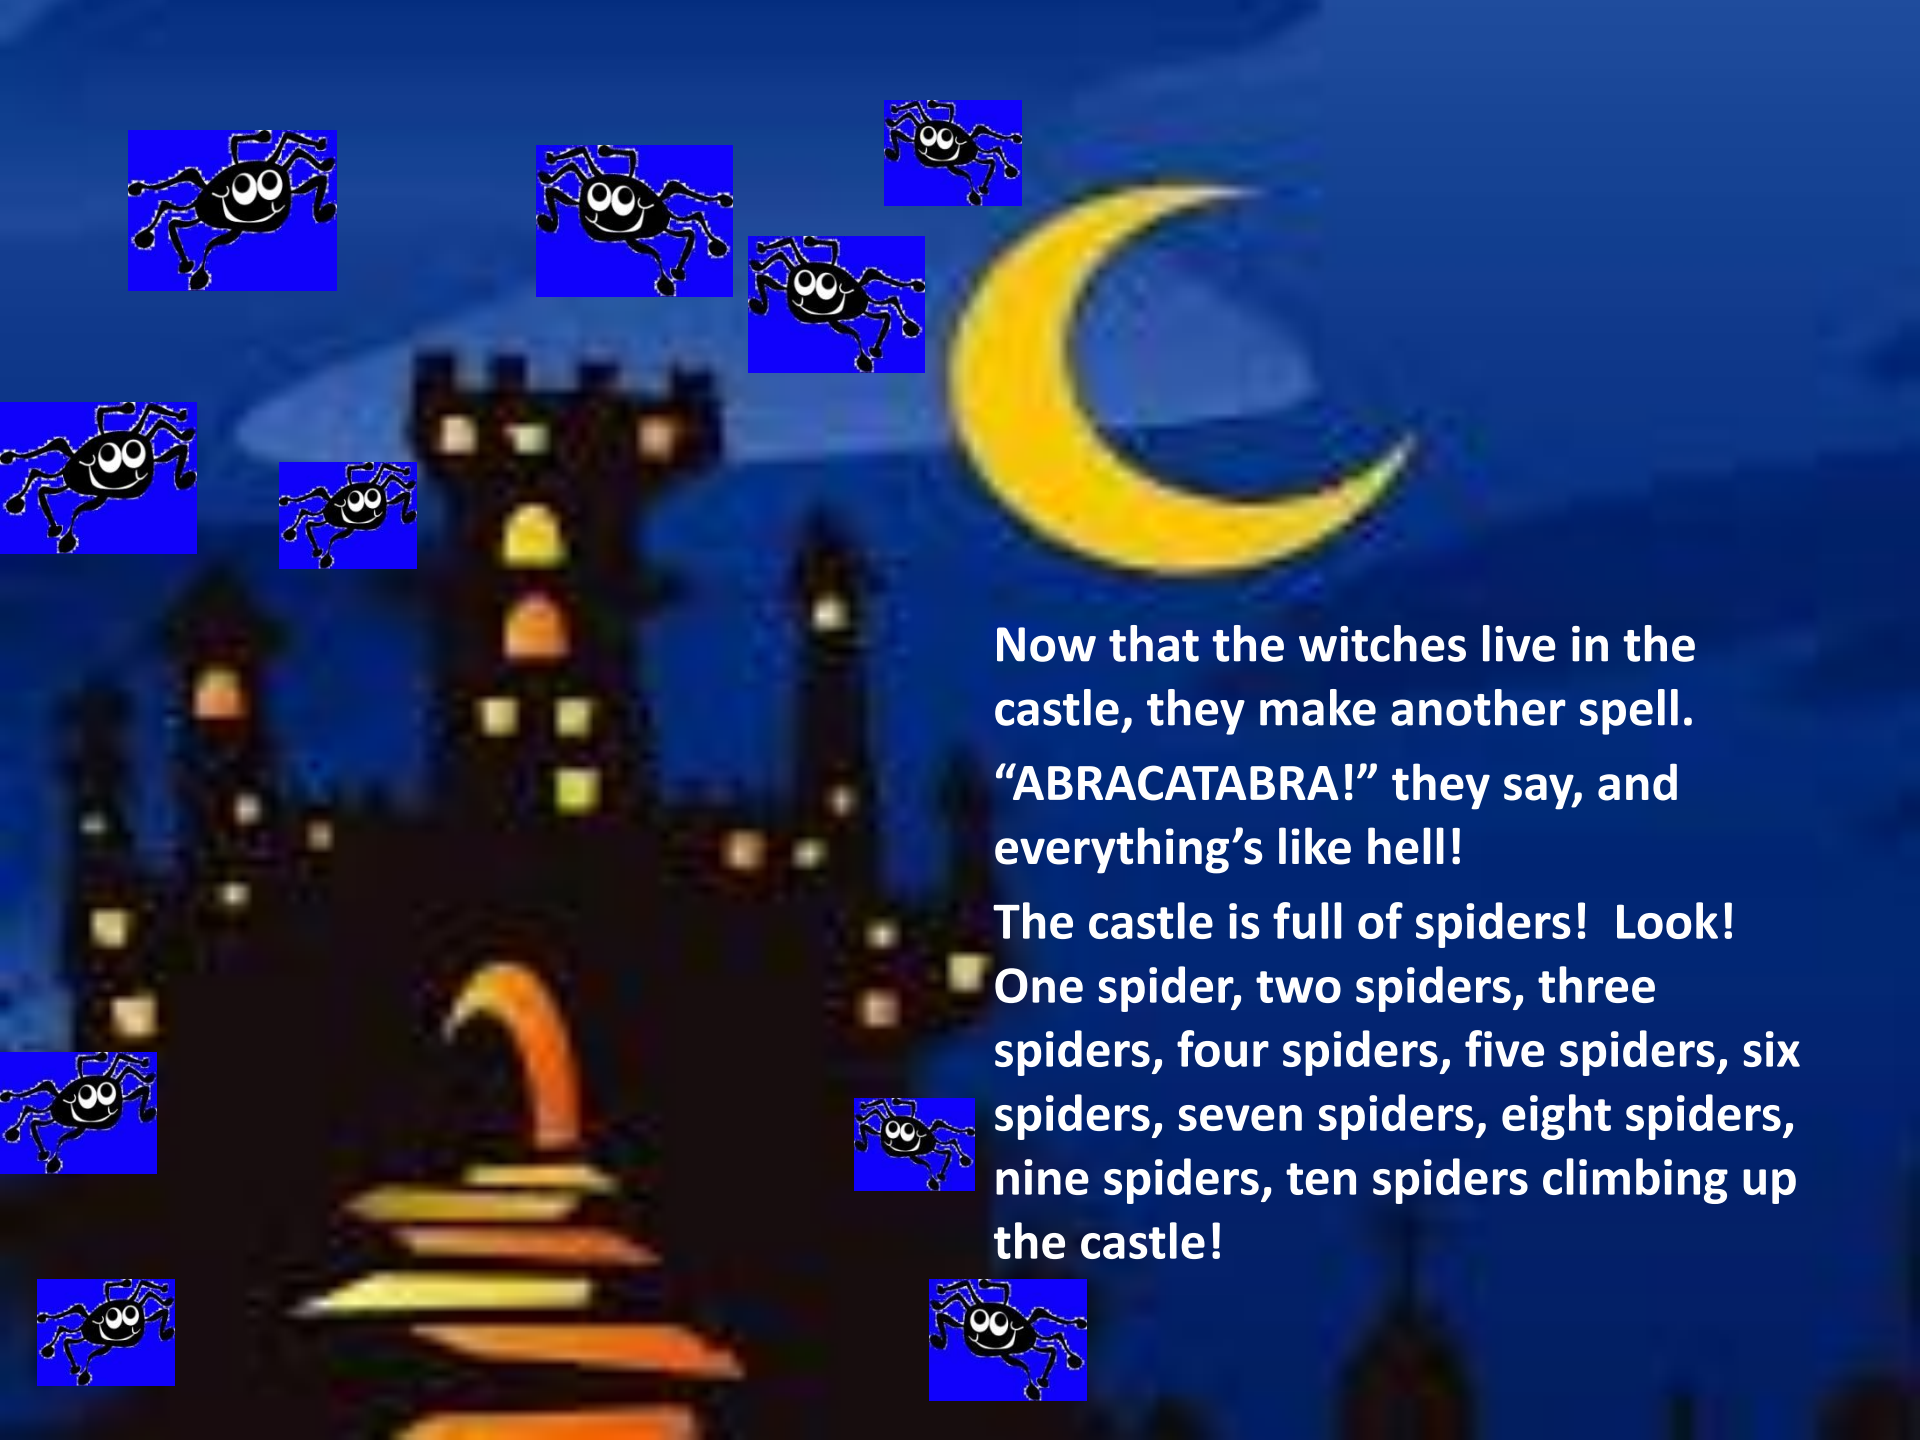

A strange noise is heard again in the air. Who is it?

It's the witches making spells.

One witch, two witches, three witches, four witches, five witches, six witches, seven witches, eight witches, nine witches fly in the air.

"ABRACATABRA !" they say and scare the ghosts away!

Now that the witches live in the castle, they make another spell. "ABRACATABRA!" they say, and everything's like hell!

The castle is full of spiders! Look! One spider, two spiders, three spiders, four spiders, five spiders, six spiders, seven spiders, eight spiders, nine spiders, ten spiders climbing up the castle!

Oh look ! The sun rises again! So Halloween is over!
Next year again!

Happy Halloween
